

cured in the form of pork, bacon, hams, shoulders or lard, and payment of duty secured by the said bond, then the said bond shall be and become null and void, otherwise shall remain in full force and virtue.

Sec. 28. After the reception of the swine into the bonding warehouse or slaughter-house, it shall not be lawful to remove any of them alive therefrom under any pretense or for any reason whatever.

Sec. 29. The product of such swine, after having been slaughtered, shall not be removed for any purpose from the bonding place without a permit from the Collector or proper officer of Customs, as in the case of all other bonded goods.

Sec. 30. The bond given by the importer, as before specified, shall be cancelled upon payment of the current rate of duty imposed upon swine imported into Canada, or upon exportation of sixty-five per cent of the live weight of the swine weighing two hundred pounds and under, or of exportation of seventy per cent of the live weight of the swine weighing over two hundred pounds as originally entered in the form of pork, bacon, hams, shoulders and lard; and if a less quantity than seventy per cent is exported, the duty shall be paid upon the quantity deficient, at the rate imposed upon the live animal, in proportion to value.

Sec. 31. Slaughtered swine may be imported to be cured and packed in bond and entered in the usual way for warehouse, and be placed in the premises established as a warehouse of this class for the special purpose of curing and packing. The weight and value of such carcasses shall be stated upon the face of the entry for warehouse, and the importer shall execute a bond to the Queen with two sufficient sureties to the satisfaction of the Collector of Customs at the port where such carcasses are imported or warehoused, in double the amount of duty accruing thereupon, to be calculated according to the highest rate of duty imposed by the tariff upon any part or parts of the said carcasses, conditioned for the due exportation of the same or payment of duty within one year from date of first entry.

Sec. 32. The meats being the produce of such carcasses, shall be calculated for exportation or duty as the case may be, after allowing in respect of meat in pickle a reduction of five per cent from the original weight or weight for first entry, and these percentages may be deducted by compensation entries from the warehouse books at the time of each ex-warehouse entry, in proper proportions, and if any
