ITOR

GER

IAGER

ISING

IGN

in its

ation is

cial stu-

BRUN-

ed wee-

Student

NSWIC-

ated in

Union

Freder-

k. Print-

hing in

ige paid

d class

National

g rates

B3. THE

egal pu-

int any

if they

ed. THE names

in this

necess-

tudent's

ncil, or

how-

tions:

Co-ed residence "just a rumor"

By SUSAN REED Staff Writer

The rumour of the possibility of a co-ed residence on campusis just that, a rumor.

Dean of Men's Residences J. Robert Smith saidhe had sent a notice to his proctors and dons to see if they had any suggestions concerning residenceand thought this might be partially responsible for the rumor. He suggested that perhaps the students from Murray House had been making inquiries.

He said the subject "had not been broached" as yet but suspects "it

Dean of Women Joy Kidd said she doesn't think a co-ed residence on campus is being considered but she has put it on the agenda for the joint Board of Governors Senate meeting coming up in February. UNB has one co-ed residence, Florence Murray House, which is located off campus.

No money saved

By JOHN HAMILTON Staff Writer

Lack of snow this winter has not saved the university any appreci-Garland, vice president adminis- illegally not only block traffic and tration of UNB. He said snow priority over these.

spent clearing up particularly bad snowstorms.

Garland said hazardous winter conditions are one reason why more cars are being towed away able amount of money, said Eric this year. He said cars parked building entrances, but pose a removal is done by full time threat to pedestrians as well. The salaried employees of the univer- rules are being enforced he said, sity and the absence of snow just so to avoid unnecessary inconvemeans they can do their regular nience and expense he urges all jobs. Snow removal usually takes students to park only in designated areas. He also said if people Sanding and salting have been have any comments or suggesnecessary he said, so any savings tions about the parking regulaare in gasoline and possibly tions on campus, to give him a call overtime for workers needed for at 453-4525 or call the 24 hour a ### extended shifts or late-night hours day Safety Hotline at 453-4830. Short is new ass't comptroller

By SUSAN REED STAFF WRITER

John Short has been appointed assistant comptroller of the SRC. The appointment was announced at Monday's regular SRC meeting. Short said he had been contacted by Steve Howes following his recommendation by former assistant comptroller Anne Langereis.

As assistant comptroller, Short automatically becomes a member of the Administrative Board. His other duties include acting as comptroller for the winter carnival and next September's orientation.

Short said his main job is to assist Howes and to keep the Campus Police books. He said his responsibility as a non-voting member of the SRC executive is to provide input and comment on the proceedings.

same as the comptroller's. Short is a third-year business various summer jobs.

John Short

His term of office will be the student. He said he has had experience in bookkeeping with

Computing centre lists hours

In order to better serve our users we have altered our weekend hours of operation. Therefore effective Feb. 11 the Computing Centre will be open the following hours.

9 a.m.-2 a.m. Monday-Friday 10 a.m.-Midnight Saturday

Noon-Midnight Sunday NOTE: The office will not be open after 6 on Saturday and Sunday.

Bob Howle, Conservative MP, met with UNB students in the Blue Lounge and cafeteria Wednesday at noon.

Fire alarm pranks costly

By CINDY CAMERON Staff Writer

Firemen were called last Friday to McLeod House after a university of five years." student pulled the sixth floor fire minutes the house was cleared as only once in a while." four pumpers and snorkels and about 10 men appeared within minutes. Both city police and campus security also came, only to learn it was a false alarm.

Captain Sonny Maston of City Fire Prevention said that "a prank call is against the law and it falls under the Criminal Code. A person to speak

Pierre Trudeau as Leader of the Liberal Party of Canada, Donald

MacDonald will visit the UNB campus next Tuesday, Feb. 5. He will be keynote speaker at a major

Liberal rally scheduled for the SUB

Among the other speakers will be Joseph Daigle, Leader of the

New Brunswick Liberal Party;

Gary MacAuley, MP for Moncton;

and Dr. Dan Hurley, Liberal candidate in York-Sunbury. The rally is sponsored by the Campus Liberal

Club and members of the club wil

also participate in the program. It is expected that the formal speeches will be followed by a question

a former minister of finance in the Trudeau cabinet. He is actively engaged in the present campaign

speaking in support of Libéral candidates in several parts of the country. In New Brunswick he is appearing on behalf of Mike

Landers in Saint John and Dr.

Hurley in York-Sunbury. He will hold a press conference in the SUB

prior to the rally.

Mr. MacDonald, of Toronto was ballroom at 8 p.m.

period.

can be charged with a maximum a false alarm is close to $1200.

alarm twice as a prank. Within 15 pulled on campus," Maston said " men, salary, and extra accident who is caught placing a prank call The cost alone to have fire either by telephone, fire alarms etc department equipment respond to This includes three to four Fire "There aren't too many alarms trucks, between six and eight

SRC business proceeds

By GORDON LOANE

Monday night. Several house reason for the reduction. keeping measures were passed Comptroller Steve Howes intro-The man most likely to succeed throughout the meeting.

> and Dean of Students Barry to the position by council. Thompson would likely attend a Howes further informed council meeting in the near future.

> consensus of the meeting was that on campus. the March midterm break in 1981 Council met in regular session for discussed at length.

an Alumni-sponsored leadership following. session was in the planning stages for this spring. Therbourne further informed council about an Alumni Council meeting held earlier in the day. The basic proposal discussed at the meeting was the centralization of student services in the Alumni Memorial Building. Plans are tentative and are only preliminary, he said.

Vice-president Chril Earl informed council on preparations for the upcoming student elections to be held February 20. Due to financial considerations only eight polling booths will be established this election, a reduction from 13 After a one-week delay, the such polls in the previous student representative council campaign. Poor voter turnout at proceeded with regular business several polls was given as another duced John Short as his nominee President Perry Thorbourne in his for the position of assistant report to council indicated that comptroller of the student union. Acting UNB President Tom Condon Mr. Short was later ratified by of the liquor problems being Considerable debate took place experienced on campus. Council over the issue of a new class later approved a motion requesttimetable presently under con- ing that NBLCC card facilities be sideration by the UNB Senate. The made available from time to time should be maintained. The merits nearly two hours. The next of several options open were regulary-scheduled meeting Monday night has been cancelled Thorbourne informed council that and will resume the Monday

Notice

Next Monday's regularly-scheduled SRC meeting has been cancelled.

The meetings will resume the following Monday.