

calendar

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 12

Lakeview library has book beat, for discussion and coffee, 10 a.m.
 Stories for preschoolers are told at Park Royal library, 10:30 a.m., and a film for adults is on screen, entitled Bill Cosby on Prejudice.

Adults are invited to tour the new Malton library building, while stories are told to preschoolers, 2 p.m.

Mrs. R. Platt describes the Montessori method of education, Burnhamthorpe library, 2:15 p.m.

Clarkson-Lorne Park library has stories for preschoolers, 1:30 p.m.

There's coffee, conversation and crafts for adults at Streetsville library, 2 p.m.

Constable Graham Hibbs discusses child safety, Central library, 2:30 p.m.

After-school films at Woodlands library, 4 p.m., include Big Lighthouse, Little Steamship, Stowaway, Incredible Diving Machines.

A talk on reincarnation is to be given by Ken Dixon in a series on Mind Awareness, Burnhamthorpe library, 7 p.m.

Films of mystery and suspense at Central library, 7 p.m., include The Bet and The Open Window.

Central library's book discussion group examines Margaret Atwood's Surfacing, 7:30 p.m.

Jon Clipperton asks Are You Adequately Insured? at Streetsville library, 8 p.m.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 13

Caroline Wulf demonstrates sewing for children, Central library, 10:30 a.m.

A Film, The Concert, is showing at Woodlands library, 10 a.m.

Port Credit library's Moppet Club meets at 10:30 a.m., and staffers from Peel Public Health Unit lead discussion of transactional analysis for adults, at the same time.

Adults are invited to tour the new Malton library building, 10:30 a.m. There's a storyhour for preschoolers at the same time.

Erin Zimmer talks about wardrobe planning at Lakeview library, 10:30 a.m., and there are stories for preschoolers at the same time.

Book Talk takes place at Clarkson-Lorne Park library, 1:30 p.m.

A talk on Montessori methods of education takes place at Burnhamthorpe library, 2:15 p.m.

Constable Graham Hibbs discusses child safety, Central library, 2:30 p.m.

Family films at Burnhamthorpe library, 7:15 p.m., include Blue Bike, The Orphan Lions, Vicious Cycles.

Olympic Airways shows slides and films of Greece, Clarkson-Lorne Park library, 7:30 p.m.

The Great Thaw is the title of a film in the Civilization series at Malton library, 7:30 p.m.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 14

Caroline Wulf shows how to sew for children, Central library, 10:30 a.m. Family films at Central at 8 p.m. include Little Mermaid, Munro, and Jungle Cat of the Amazon.

The Mississauga chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star holds a bridge and euchre on Friday, Jan. 14, 8 p.m., Texaco Hall, Mississauga Road, south of Lakeshore Road, Port Credit. Admission is $1.25. Everyone welcome.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 15

Zlateh the Goat is the title of a film showing during Kids' Time at Woodlands library, 10 a.m.

A puppet workshop, showing youngsters how to make their own puppets, is set for Burnhamthorpe library, 10 a.m.

Pooh and Me, a program at Lakeview library, includes puppets, stories, poems and crafts for youngsters, 10:30 a.m.

Films for youngsters at Port Credit library, 10:30 a.m., include Mysteries of the Sea, Flipper the Seal.

The Great Adventure is on screen at Central library, 10:30 a.m., for youngsters six to 12, and there are stories for preschoolers at the same time.

Craft Corner offers classes for children in macrame and weaving, 1:30 p.m., 2:30 p.m. and 3:30 p.m. Cost of the four-week courses are $12. Courses are held at 13 Stavebank Rd. N., Port Credit. For more information, call 274-9691. Courses in off-loom weaving and macrame are held for adults during the week and Saturdays.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 16

A general meeting for all service clubs in Mississauga to plan Festival '77 will be held in Committee Room 2 at Mississauga city hall at 1:30 p.m. For more information, call Jim Hoshko at 279-7600.

MONDAY, JANUARY 17

An exhibition of prints from Mississauga Library system's permanent collection opens at Port Credit library, to Feb. 5.

Streetsville United Church, 274 Queen St. S. holds a blood-donor clinic, 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. and from 5:30 p.m. to 8:15 p.m.

Rehoboth Christian Reformed Church presents a public lecture at 8 p.m. Speaker is Hugh McCullum, journalist, author, former editor of the Canadian Churchman and an expert on the Canadian Arctic. He'll speak on Christ and Crisis in Canadian Native Rights. Everyone is welcome. Refreshments are free.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 18

Sally Stamatopoulos of Olympic Paint and Wallpaper talks about interior decorating, Woodlands library, 10 a.m.

Edna Toth talks about genetics, Clarkson-Lorne Park library, 1:30 p.m. and there are stories for preschoolers at the same time.

Wings to Great Britain and Bluenose Ghosts are on screen for the 60-Plus Club at Port Credit library, 2 p.m.

Stories for preschoolers are told at Lakeview library, 2 p.m.

There's coffee, conversation and crafts at Streetsville library, 2 p.m.

Wendy Evert and Sue Dobson conduct a travelogue at Park Royal library, 2:30 p.m. and there are stories for preschoolers at the same time.

A film series entitled Carefree Travel has The Manxmen and John Muir's High Sierra on screen at Central library, 2:30 p.m.

Films about the Netsilik Eskimo are on screen at Central library, 7:30 p.m., including At the Autumn River Camp.

Thompson Adamson, direct descendant of Dr. Jos. Adamson, the first doctor to practice medicine in Peel County back in 1822, will give an illustrated talk on the early days of Erindale at the 8:15 p.m. meeting of the Mississauga South Historical Society, Texaco Room, Port Credit library. All are welcome.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 19

Stories for preschoolers are told at Park Royal library, 10:30 a.m. and a travelogue for adults is presented by Wendy Evert and Sue Dobson at the same time.

Clarkson-Lorne Park library has stories for preschoolers, 1:30 p.m.

The staff of Vincents of Westwood Mall demonstrate hair-styling at Malton library, 2 p.m., and there are stories for preschoolers at the same time.

Free to be... You and Me is on screen at Burnhamthorpe library, 2:15 p.m.

A film, Am I Wife, Mother or Me? is on screen at Central library, 2:30 p.m.

After-school films at Woodlands library, 4 p.m., include How Beaver Stole Fire, and Aircraft in Forest Fire Control.

There's a blood-donor clinic at Teamsters Union Hall, Local 938, 1194 Matheson Blvd., from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. and from 5:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Dan Perkins discusses Kirlian photography in a series on Mind Awareness, Burnhamthorpe library, 7 p.m.

Films in a series on mystery and suspense, Central library, 7 p.m., include All Gold Canyon, The Stranger Left no Card.

Dr. Edward Sheffman, anaesthesiologist at North York General Hospital, a user of hypno-therapy, will speak to the annual general meeting of the Canadian Foundation for Ileitis and Colitis, main auditorium, St. Michael's Hospital, 8:30 p.m. Topic is personality changes of the sufferer of inflammatory bowel disease and subsequent effects on the whole family.

The Baha'is of Mississauga invite everyone to celebrate World Religion Day on Wednesday, Jan. 19 at 8 p.m. This is an interfaith gathering to proclaim love, harmony and peace between all religions and all mankind. It is at the Texaco Room, Port Credit library, 20 Lakeshore Rd. E. There is no admission charge.

Lorne Park library, 7:30 p.m., Thursday, Jan. 20. On the same night Eric Silk shows slides of the Waters of Streetsville at Streetsville library, 8 p.m.

LIONESS PROJECTS

Lioness Club members will be busy making slippers and cushions on Jan. 13 at 8 p.m. for their upcoming bazaar at Square One Shopping Centre. The regular Lioness meeting is at Square One auditorium, Jan. 26, 7:45 p.m. The club recently received a letter, with translation, from one of its sponsored children, Kim Sung Jah of Korea, along with a handpainted Christmas card. Stamps from envelopes are being saved by Lionesses to raise money for the blind. Dominion Store Ltd. tapes are being gathered by Lionesses to provide a wheelchair for the Credit Valley Handicapped Centre, which is supported by the Lions. The club has made a donation to the Family Leukemia Association.

ECUMENICAL CENTRE

The Ecumenical Centre at Square One Shopping Centre begins programs this month. There's a craft corner every

All together now...

This was one of the more common sights in Mississauga this week as people coped with one of the worst snow storms to hit this area in a long time. At one point during the storm on Monday, things became so bad that Mississauga had to take its snow-clearing equipment off the roads. Bus service on several city routes also had to be cancelled because of impossible road conditions.

Wednesday morning at 10 a.m. it includes macrame, crochet, knitting, rug-hooking and weaving. The first demonstration began Jan. 12. All are welcome and the classes are free. On Thursdays at 8 p.m. there is Bible study and on Friday at 8 p.m. there's conversation and coffee. All are welcome. The centre is located on the lower level of Square One.

RUMMAGE SALE

There's a rummage sale Saturday, Jan. 22 from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. at Trinity Church, 26 Stavebank Rd., Port Credit. It is sponsored by St. Margaret's Guild.

CLUB CHIMO

Club Chimo, for singles over 30, meets at 8 p.m. the second and fourth Monday of each month at St. Dominic's Church, Cawthra and Atwater. For further information on this non-denominational group, call 279-7600.

MALTON DANCE

Malton community centre opens Feb. 5. Opening ceremonies will include a dance. It starts at 8:30 p.m. The centre is at 3540 Morningstar Rd. Tickets are $3 per person and sales close on Feb. 1. For tickets, call 677-5716 or 677-0636 after 6 p.m.

GOLDEN JUBILEE TOUR

Kinsmen Club of Mississauga reports that the National Kinsmen Association is inviting 10 couples from Canada to attend the Golden Jubilee Tour, June 6 to 19. There will be three tours, all starting at Manchester, Eng. Information can be obtained from Pete Hanly, Executive Director, The Association of Kinsmen Clubs, 7-55 Glencairney Rd., Thornhill, Ont. L3T 1P2.

DIXIE LIONS

Dixie Lions Club reports that 13 families, including 45 children, were supplied with food hampers over Christmas. A training table for a two-year-old cerebral palsy child and a maxims inhaler were also donated. The zone chairman, Terry Mulligan, spoke at the Jan. 4 Lions' meeting. A bingo was held Monday at the Lakeshore Psychiatric Hospital.

TALK BY ASTRONOMER

Zonta Club of Mississauga heard a talk by an astronomer, Dr. Helen Sawyer-Hogg, at their last meeting. She began an observational program on star clusters in Victoria, B.C. in 1931 with a 72-inch reflector, then the second largest telescope in the world. In 1950, she received the Annie J. Cannon prize of the American Astronomical Society, a prize awarded every three years to an outstanding female researcher. In 1968, she received the Medal of Service of the Order of Canada. She writes a weekly column on astronomy, With the Stars, in

The Toronto Daily Star and has published a book, The Stars Belong to Everyone.

OVEREATERS ANONYMOUS
 If you're a compulsive eater, Overeaters Anonymous may be able to help. The club meets Mondays at 8 p.m. at the Park Royal Plaza. There are no fees and no weigh-ins. For more information, call 783-9445.

SELE-HELP PROGRAMS
 Mississauga Hospital invites relatives of people with a drinking problem to take part Wednesdays in AL-ANON, a program of self-help for relatives, 8:30 p.m. AL-ATEEN meets at 8 p.m. It helps teenagers deal with the problems of alcoholic relatives. The meetings are at the hospital.

LEUKEMIA DATA
 Crusade Against Leukemia now has an audio-visual presentation describing the disease, the progress in research and fund-raising work. The presentation is available for educational purposes. For further information, call 223-0681 or 636-0234.

DRIVERS NEEDED
 The Clarkson Cancer Society needs volunteer drivers to transport patients to the Princess Margaret Hospital in Toronto. For information, call 822-9639 or 277-8356.

TERRA COTTA ACTIVITIES
 Winter activities at Terra Cotta Conservation Area during January and February include cross-country skiing on marked trails. Snowshoes are also available on a first-come, first-served basis. Special events are planned for the Sundays to Feb. 27. For further details, call 451-1615.

GO FOR A SKATE
 There is public skating at six Mississauga arenas: Burnhamthorpe, Malton, Cawthra, Huron Park, Clarkson Community Centre and Port Credit. For information call 279-7600.

ANTIQUÉ MARKET
 The Hyland Antiqué Market, Hillcrest Mall, 9350 Yonge St., north of Steeles Ave., is open the second Sunday of each month from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. The market displays the wares of 55 antique dealers in Ontario.

CLARKSON LIONS
 Clarkson Lions Club will hold Race Night at the track on Jan. 13. April 13 is the date set for the Joint Region Rally in the Oakville arena.

ROTARIAN ACTIVITIES
 Rotary Club of Mississauga has chosen Joe De Souza Rotarian of the Year. Of the 57 clubs in District 707, Mississauga Rotarians made the top 10 in attendance during 1976.

Rotary Club of Port Credit celebrates its anniversary Jan. 18.

seniors

Tickets for the Bethesda Concert Series are available to seniors for 50 cents. Tickets must, however, be ordered well in advance. For tickets to see the Canadian Brass on Feb. 6, give your name to your representative by Jan. 20.

SWIMMING LESSONS
 Swimming lessons are being offered at Cawthra pool for seniors on Tuesdays at 9:15 a.m. The course runs for 12 weeks. Registration costs $4. A free recreational swim for seniors is held Tuesdays at 10:45 a.m.

VARIETY OF COURSES
 There are courses at Cawthra Senior Citizens Centre this month in Oriental dancing, bridge, yoga, ceramics, macrame, square dancing, creative crafts, painting and ballroom dancing. For more information, call the centre at 274-2369.

CAMERA CLUB
 The camera club meets Jan. 13 at 1:30 p.m. at the Cawthra centre. Guest speaker tomorrow is Fred Loek. New members are welcome.

FILMS ON INDIA
 Films on India will be presented at the Cawthra centre on Jan. 14 at 2 p.m.

churches

Dr. Robert Potvin, a psychologist at St. Michael's Hospital, will speak on Values and Their Formation, Unitarian Congregation of South Peel, Jan. 16 at 10:30 a.m.

LET'S TAKE A BREAK
 Clarkson Road Presbyterian Church holds its Let's Take a Break program Wednesday mornings at 9:30. Everyone is welcome for crafts and coffee.

WEIGHT WATCHERS
 Weight Watchers' meetings are held at St. Christopher's Church Hall, Clarkson Road, every Tuesday morning at 9:30 and 2917.

Tuesday evening at 7:30. For further information, call 275-5222.

FOR WOMEN
 Rehoboth Christian Reformed Church, 800 Burnhamthorpe Rd., offers Take a Break sessions for women on Thursday mornings. The program includes Bible study. Free babysitting is provided. The program runs from 9:30 to 11:15.

ANNIVERSARY DINNER
 Christ Risen Lutheran Church will hold its 10th Anniversary Dinner on Jan. 23 at 5:30 p.m. Reservations should be in by Jan. 16. For more information, call 625-2917.

performing arts

The Mississauga Players will hold director's workshops Jan. 19 and 26 at Studio Theatre, Erindale College, 7:30 p.m. On Jan. 22 and Feb. 5, Mississauga Players will hold stage manager's workshops at Crookes Park, Beach Street, 12:30 p.m. For more information, phone 822-1710.

SUNDAY CONCERTS
 The Associates of Erindale College present Series '77, four Sunday afternoon concerts, beginning Jan. 16 at 3 p.m. in The Meeting Place (at the college) with the New Chamber Orchestra. The three other concerts: Camerata, Feb. 13; Mississauga Symphony Orchestra, March 20; and the Moe Koffman Quintet, April 17. Tickets for the series are $10 for adults and $8 for students and senior citizens. The college's art gallery will also be open on these Sundays. For more information, call 828-5214.

ORGAN RECITAL
 The Applewood Organ Club presents Frank Jacino Jan. 26 at 8:15 p.m. in the Texaco Room of Port Credit library. For further information, phone 277-0688.

SALUTE TO LIVE ARTS
 Sheridan Mall presents a Salute to Live Arts starting today and ending Jan. 15. The series includes the Mississauga Symphony Orchestra, Clarkson Music Theatre, Classical School of Ballet and choral and barbershop singing.

LIADOV QUARTET
 The Liadov Quartet presents Peter and the Wolf, Feb. 5, Burnhamthorpe library, 10 a.m. It's for children six to 12 years old. Admission is free. For more information, call 625-4314.

arts and crafts

Rolfe E. Pryne exhibits water colors and egg tempera paintings at Brampton Public Library and Art Gallery, Chinguacousy branch, 150 Central Park Dr., Bramalea.

LORNE PARK GROUP
 The Lorne Park Oil Painting group resumes meetings next week. The 10-week session begins Tuesday, Jan. 18 and Wednesday, Jan. 19. Anyone interested in joining this group should call the art teacher, Marion Utting at 278-9619.

MARY VAITIEKUNAS
 Erindale College Art Gallery on Mississauga Road is displaying banners made by Mary Vaitiekunas, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. on week days and 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. on weekends. Her banners have been shown across Canada in the Canadian Guild of Crafts' exhibit. They have also been displayed in the National Arts Centre, Ottawa, the Visual Arts Centre, Montreal and Toronto's Shaw-Rimington Gallery and Craft Gallery.

JAN PETER MICHALOWSKI
 Paintings by Jan Peter Michalowski are on display at Central library to Jan. 27. Michalowski of Oakville was a winner at Peel Museum and Art Gallery's juried show this year. His work includes prints and acrylic paintings.

FRED MANCUSO
 The work of Mississauga artist Fred Mancuso, confined to a wheelchair because of multiple sclerosis, will be on display at Burnhamthorpe library to Jan. 29. His wife Agnes is also an artist and their work is displayed in art galleries in the Toronto area.

STUDIO TEN SHOW
 The 12 members of Studio Ten, a group of amateur artists, have a show at Clarkson-Lorne Park library to Feb. 2.

TIME PIECES
 Fred Kolishenco, operator of the Cloche Shoppe on Lakeshore Road in Port Credit, has a display of antique timepieces on display at Port Credit library during January.

WALLHANGINGS
 Woven wallhangings by Ann Plante are on display at Woodlands library until Jan. 28.

FREDERICK ROLFE
 Manuscripts of Frederick Rolfe, author of Hadrian VII, are exhibited this month at Burnhamthorpe library.

ROSELYN BROWN CRAFTS
 Crafts by Roselyn Brown are on display at Burnhamthorpe library this month.

guides & scouts

The third Streetsville Cubs plan to attend the Scout Banquet and Gang Show in early March. The Cubs presented Rev. James Hutchison with a gift at a farewell party. The Cubs are planning to visit a police station and are working on their Tawny Star badges.

VISIT NURSING HOME
 Streetsville Guides have visited the Pine Ridge nursing home in Streetsville and took gifts for bingo.

clubs & events

The Alfred Adler Institute of Ontario (AAIO) is offering a course on how to deal with adolescents more effectively, Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 15 and 16 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., 252 Bloor St. W. Topics include normal development, psychopathology, methods of coping with home, school, work and group situations and preventive and corrective procedures. Cost is $30 to AAIO members and $40 for non-members. For more information, call 222-2048.

WOMEN'S CLUB

The Lakeshore Business and Professional Women's Club will hold its monthly meeting on Jan. 17 in the Mayfair Dining Room. There will be a guest speaker. For more information, call Ida Potts, 252-5421 or 259-8922.

IODE MEETING

Col. Thomas Ingersol Chapter, IODE meets Monday, Jan. 17, 1:15 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Marg Elliott, 1544 Knarwood Dr., Mississauga.

SLIDE SHOWS

Rolf Schwartje of Lufthansa shows slides and films of Germany at Clarkson-

Lorne Park library, 7:30 p.m., Thursday, Jan. 20. On the same night Eric Silk shows slides of the Waters of Streetsville at Streetsville library, 8 p.m.

LIONESS PROJECTS
 Lioness Club members will be busy making slippers and cushions on Jan. 13 at 8 p.m. for their upcoming bazaar at Square One Shopping Centre. The regular Lioness meeting is at Square One auditorium, Jan. 26, 7:45 p.m. The club recently received a letter, with translation, from one of its sponsored children, Kim Sung Jah of Korea, along with a handpainted Christmas card. Stamps from envelopes are being saved by Lionesses to raise money for the blind. Dominion Store Ltd. tapes are being gathered by Lionesses to provide a wheelchair for the Credit Valley Handicapped Centre, which is supported by the Lions. The club has made a donation to the Family Leukemia Association.

ECUMENICAL CENTRE
 The Ecumenical Centre at Square One Shopping Centre begins programs this month. There's a craft corner every