Dear Henry:

I received your letter of 14th
just after you had gone.

Meantime, I had received a letter from Sir Archibald Nye, seeking to answer my complaint about his speech. Of Sir Archibald's letter a copy is enclosed, as well as a copy of the portion of his address to which I took greatest exception. To this letter of Sir Archibald Nye I have made reply and a copy is enclosed herewith.

Yours sincerely,

AM/E.
