

5. No notice or advertisement shall be posted up or published in the Club, except such as are countersigned by the Secretary and sanctioned by the Directors.

6. All communications are to be addressed to the Secretary.

7. No member is to chide or in any way find fault with a servant, but any member may report any servant to the House Committee, through the Secretary, who shall deal with the case and announce the result.

8. No member shall give any gratuity to any servant of the Club, and the receipt of any such gratuity shall render the servant liable to immediate dismissal without notice.

9. Any member breaking or damaging any article shall replace the same or pay the cost thereof to the Club.

10. No member shall, under any pretext, remove from the Club premises any book, paper or other article belonging to the Club, except in accordance with the House Rules.

11. No one but a member, or an introduced or temporary member, shall, on any pretext, be admitted into the Club rooms, or supplied with