GOSSIP

CANADIAN IMMIGRANTS.

In the years 1908 and 1909, 90,726 agriculturists and 12,688 laborers came to Canada from the United States. Many of these were expatriated Canadians, and most of the others, directly or indirectly, came from Northern Europe. Regarding the influx from Europe, during the eight years ending March 31, 1909, 73 per cent. of the European arrivals in Canada belonged to the Teutonic and Celtic races, and 27 per cent. to the Slavic and Iberic races. Thus, it is seen that our West is filling with the types most akin to the Anglo-Saxon element of the older Provinces. Further, one hundred thousand people have entered the West since the beginning of this year. In April, there were 48,000, of whom 40 per cent, were from the United States, and of the rest. 75 per cent. were English-speaking.

During the eight years ending March 31, 1909, only 23 per cent, of the immigrant arrivals in the United States were of Teutonic and Celtic origin, while 77 per cent. were of Slavic or Iberic origin. This, too, shows that to Canada is coming the lion's share of the desirable European emigrants, which, in the years to come, will go far towards the establishing of a reliable citizenship.

SHEEP AND SWINE AT THE HIGH-LAND SHOW

The exhibit of sheep at the Highland Society's Show this year was well up to a high standard, the Scottish breeds Blackfaces and Cheviots, being numerously represented by first-class specimens, while Leicesters, Shropshires, Oxfords and Suffolks also made a good showing. Border Leicesters made a grand show, most of them being brought out in the pink of condition. In a class of thirteen rams two shears and over, the winner was R. G. Murray's knockdon Stamp, by Mertoun Swell. This ram was bought at Kelso last year for £40. He is a big. wide-bodied sheep, on short legs, is well covered, and has an extra good back The second award went to His Majesty exhibited by J. & J. R. C. Smith, and bred by Mr. Mark, of Sunnyside. This sheep was second at the Royal Show at Liverpool, King Cole, the third-prize ram at the Royal, was also third here He was bred by W. S. Bell, East Fortune, and exhibited by J. Evelyn Carr, and has for his size Fortune Barrelwell He was shown in fine form, and has the hest coat of the lot. In a strong class of 46 entries of shearling rams, the first prize went to a stylish sheep shown by Wm. Robson. This ram has a very sweet head, and a good coat, as far as it goes, but lacks covering underneath. The sec ond prize went to John Kennand, Jr. for a short-legged, thick-hodied sheep Robert Wallace was third, with one of class. The fourth, belonging to J. & J. R. C. Smith, would, with most of thos around the ring, be a popular winner He has a thick body, an extra-good coat and cover, and a true Border Leicester

In Shrepshires, the President's medal went to T. A. Buttar, for a sheep of

Proper Lubrication

For Steam Traction Engines and Steam Plants

Capitol Cylinder Oil

Delivers more power, and makes the engine run better and longer with less wear and tear, because its friction-reducing properties are exactly fitted to the requirements of steam traction engines and steam plants.

Axle Mica

Traction Engines, Wagons, Etc.

makes the wheel as nearly frictionless as possible and reduces the wear on axle and box. It ends axle troubles, saves energy in the horse, and when used on axles of traction engines economizes fuel and power.
