Paper and Personality

A GIFT of fine social or personal correspondence paper implies a compliment; for it gently suggests that both giver and recipient appreciate the finer personal element; the unspoken atmosphere one's letters always have

Such papers are
OLDE ENGLISH PARCHMENT VELLUM
and
KENMARE LINEN

Both come in various shapes and sizes, boxed for convenience and for giving

Subscriber—Are you an "Asset" or a "Liability"?

FIRST, we THANK those who have paid ahead—one year, two years, or even five years! Yes, we HAD a five-year AHEAD renewal the other day, and we have had one for TEN YEARS AHEAD!

If YOUR renewal date is NOW in 1925, or ahead of that, you are an "asset," and a valuable one, whose practical co-operation we appreciate. But those who, (for so small an item) need REPEATED REMINDERS, involving stamps, stationery, clerical work, etc., become more of a "liability," and are persons whom the most patient publisher is pleased to have pay up and come off.

YOU do not wish to be in that class, but EVERY MAGAZINE MAILED MEANS MONEY PAID by the publisher to the Post Office, AND one has only to look at the B. C. M. to understand that its PRODUCTION COSTS MONEY.

PLEASE CHECK YOUR DATE, and, if due or overdue—

Renew your renewal today!
