Wild Duck.

A well known citizen walking home late last night found a wild duck, red head, with a broken wing, on the walk in front of Zion Church. He was evidently a member of an early morning flight over the city and had struck the spire. He is a beautiful specimen, weighing five pounds. The wing has been placed in a splinter and it is hoped to keep him alive.

Little Effect.

Mr. W. H. Bennett of the Brantford Stock Brokerage office, reported to-day the effect of the death of Mr. P. Morgan as follows: "The death of Mr. J. P. Morgan this morning had very little effect on prices of stocks with railroads or industrials. U. S. Steel, common, is only one point lower, selling at 61, and the preferred, five points. The wing has been placed in a splinter and it is hoped to keep him alive.
