Murder Attempt Alleged at Army Officer's House.

John Raper, aged forty, pensioned ergeant of the 1st Battalion Middlesex Regiment, giving an address at Bath Road, Arlington, Middlesex, was charged at Westminster on Monday with the attempted murder of a young woman named Lily Honour, in service at Eaton place, S.W. There was a further charge against him of attempting suicide by cutting his throat with a razor.

Divisional Detective Inspector Bedford said the young woman was still in hospital, suffering from the effects of the injuries received. She had been very ill, but was now reported to be progressing favorably.

At eleven o'clock that morning he went with Detective Sergeant Purkis to St George's hospital, where he saw the prisoner, and told him he would be charged with the attempted murder of Lily Honour. Raper was cautioned as to what he might say and he replied, "Excuse me, can I see Miss Honour for a few minutes?' While being conveyed to the Gerald emember anything. Miss Honour is curred."
