German look-outs in advanced posts are wearing new armor-coated steel helmets, consisting of a headpiece proper weighing slightly more than two pounds, with a heavy detachable steel plating which is very thick and weighs over four pounds. The total weight of the headpiece thus is nearly seven pounds. The helmet is entirely without ornament and is of a dull grey color.

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bether. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women to-day know that it is needless to have a bad Wonder what upset your stomachknow that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regula-ted and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.

The necessary legislation was laid before the House just before adjournment yesterday by Hon. I. B. Lucas Men to Win.

London, March 10.—Col. Repington, the military critic of the Times, emphasizes the necessity of recognizing the fact that the Germans on the cure a great decision, and says that the temporary relaxation and recrudices of attacks represent only stages in the great adventure.

A delay in following up the first advance is to be expected, he says, owing to the necessity of moving the great guns forward.

The Germans are prepared to sacrifice men without counting, to win success," he says. "This is to them the culminating offensive of the war, to 000 to 000 to 160 to 000 to 160 to 000 to 0

By placing a one per cent. tax on claims paid in the province will make them bear a fair share of taxation, since in order to get business in the future they will have to reduce rates zers, in such weather as this, and in view of the fact that the French steadily hold the dominating positions and are quick to act on the slightest sign of a move. "The capture of Forges, Hill 265 and Fresnes are normal operations of advance. They are undertaken to deprive the French of useful points of support and to draw tighter the contract of the chair of the contract of the cont soon as passed.
