A knitting record has been made by a lady in Limerick who has knitted by hand four hundred and twenty pairs of socks for the soldiers in twenty months. A previous record was held by a Canadian lady who hand-knitted three hundred pairs in twenty months.

The old fashioned "cottage loaf," made in two segments, has now disappeared in Britain, where bakers are required to make all loaves in one piece. Such a loaf takes less time to knead and make up, an important consideration when there is a shortage of labor. The new decree also requires that all bread shall be not less than twelve hours stale before being sold. This will remove the necessity for night baking, and consequently will allow women to take up baking, as the objection to women bakers up to now has been the illegality of employing women on night work.

The weekly war allowance of food —being the so-called, "honor ration,"—being the voluntary allowance suggested by Lord Davenport—is certainly not a starvation diet. For a family of four it works out at 14 pounds of day-old bread, 10 pounds of meat and three pounds of sugar.
The price of bread in London, 22c per four pound loaf is less than half that of Montreal to-day.

It is with very deep regret that many Brantford friends heard of the death of Lieut. Cyprian Thompson in France, who spent his boyhood days in this city. He was a son of the late Mr. Thompson of the B.N.A. staff, Brantford. Much genuine sympathy will go out to his bereaved mother, who is now residing in Frederickton, N.B.

It is with genuine regret that a number of young friends in Brantford, heard of the sudden death in Chicago yesterday, of Miss Orrel Harris. Possessed of brilliant abilities and of a most engaging disposition, her passing away when at the threshold of a most promising career in her chosen profession of nursing, came as a great shock to a large circle of Brantford friends. The bereaved mother, who was hurriedly called to Chicago on Tuesday, and brother and sister, Ormond Harris of Pittsburg, and Katherine Harris, of this city, are very much in the hearts to-day of many friends here.

At the Brantford Choral Society's memorable musical evening on Thursday the artist of the occasion, who captivated all hearts, was irref-sistibly charming in a most becoming frock of gold lace over gold satin with slippers and stockings to match, and wore a corsage bunch of pink satin roses with foliage. Miss Sharlow, by the way, is a native of Chicago, and only twenty-three years of age. Eminent critics predict that in another ten years she will be the prima donna of the United States. It is a remarkable tribute to the improved teaching facilities in the United States that Miss Sharlow has never received any foreign tuition.
She has every attribute of a genuine artist of the very highest rank.
There is no limitation to her possibilities, both in Grand Opera and the concert stage. During the evening Miss Sharlow was presented with a beautiful bouquet of pink roses, from the Brantford Choral Society,

SMALL COINS ARE DISAPPEARING

Germany Troubled With Great Shortage of Small Change
IRON MONEY ISSUED
To be Redeemed at Close of the War

The government, since 1916, has coined and issued 10,503,000 marks worth of silver 50 pfennig pieces, most of which have disappeared from sight almost as fast as put out. In addition it has put out 116,000,000 10-pfennig pieces and about as many 5-pfennig pieces, made of iron, and even these are disappearing. Business firms are known to have in some cases as much as 70,000 marks worth of iron money. The situation is to be relieved, it is reported, by a huge issue of "bons" for 50 pfennigs apiece, which will be put out by individual municipalities and taken up after the war. The shortage of small money, and its retirement from circulation and into countless stockings, has been under way for more than two years. It began originally in the occupied portions of France, then spread to similar districts in Russia. Its first result was the issue of municipal

EXERCISE URGED.

New York, April 21.—A statement issued by officials of the amateur athletic union, the Intercollegiate athletic association and the national amateur organizations of golf and lawn tennis, advocates the elimination during the war of championship contests, but urges competitors that will interest all citizens in systematic exercise to improve their physical condition and make them better prepared for military service.

CHAMELEONS USEFUL

Alexandria, Egypt, April 21.—A few more chameleons are an indispensable part of the equipment of every military hospital in Egypt. Although they are on duty in the wards chiefly because of their insatiable appetite for flies, they also serve to amuse the patients, who never tire of watching the strange variations of tint assumed by the strange animals. A favorite occupation of the Highlanders is to put a chameleon against a background of a piece of tartan kilt. Here, the soldiers assert the chameleon has to admit itself beaten. After a vain effort to mimic the colors of the kilt, it takes on a more or less neutral tone and resigns itself to the inevitable.

GIRLS! MOISTEN A CLOTH AND DRAW IT THROUGH HAIR

Surely try a "Danderine Hair Cleanse," if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil—in a few minutes you will be amazed and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance. Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff, invigorates the scalp, stopping itching and falling scalp. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful. You can surely have pretty, soft, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25 cent bottle of Knovilton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed. Save your hair. Keep it looking charming and beautiful. You will find this was the best 25 cents you ever spent.
