The Women's Missionary Society of St. Paul's Church held its annual Thanksgiving Service on Friday, afternoon Nov. 15th. These meetings are always interesting this one being no exception. A part of the program was the opening of the Thanksgiving envelopes and the reading of the many beautiful thoughts of thankfulness enclosed the reality of which was proved by the generous amounts contributed the offering exceeding that of previous years. Miss Spidell and Mrs. Embrey sang appropriate solos which were enjoyed by all. Mr. J. W. Turner recited a poem showing how God will bless even small gifts. If given in "His name" Mr. Layton, gave an address on "women in Christian lands and their work for Christ" and he showed how a missionary society stimulated a church. Their influence is further reaching than we think.

E. J. BISHOP

Kentville, N. S.

The Valley Telephone Co. was very much upset by the recent storm. All communications with the surrounding towns and districts were cut off for several days. Wolfville was accessible on Tuesday and connections again lost on Wednesday. All the districts surrounding Centreville, Canard, Lakeville, Billtown etc are completely cut off and it is likely that some time will elapse before the line between here and Berwick is put in order again.

Mr. J. M. Card's postponed auction for next Wednesday will be found in this issue. Mr. Card lost about $1500 in the recent fire at Billtown and does not expect to rebuild the store. He has just received word that his son Wylie has been wounded the second time and is now in hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Suttie have returned to Kentville from a visit at their former home at Yarmouth.

Miss Gertrude M. Pinea of Grafton has gone to the Halifax Infirmary for treatment or operation.
