We are well prepared for the demand, and have the fullest stock of Men's and Women's Underwear in Brockville. We have two special lines—a line of German Underwear, the special characteristic of which is its extreme softness, soft as down, will not scratch, and almost unshrinkable. Another is a line of Canadian Underwear, better than any Scotch goods imported, all wool, yet almost impossible to shrink them. These are two lines that sell wherever shown. We have them in Men's, Women's and Children's. We keep Men's heavy Undershirts from 25c up, and Women's vests from 25c up.

There is a legend in Rhineland that once upon a time a giant fortress was being fitted with the ranks of the people until, one by one, they were all convicted that for value, variety and everything that the requirements of a first class retail staple and many dry goods and millinery houses, own it the most satisfactory place to do business.

GUILTY OF CONSPIRACY.

AT PORT ELGIN.

AT PORT ELGIN, Nov. 24.—The verdict in the conspiracy case was somewhat of a surprise to all connected with it. It was generally expected that there would have been a disagreement or an acquittal, but as Justice Ross read from the piece of paper handed him by the court, he found, by the evidence that conspiracy existed between Thomas McGreevy and N. K. Connelly, a plan was hatched to defraud the locks which were exchanged showed that a deep sympathy prevailed for the defendants in their trying position.

Justice Ross—By that you mean a verdict of guilty?

The jury replied that they did.

Thomas McGreevy and N. K. Connelly, who say you may remember, should not be sent to jail on the indictment.

Mr. Blake—Your Lordship was good enough to intimate that you were called in on the issues that have been raised, and therefore I would respectfully ask that in the meantime defendants be admitted to bail, and that your Lordship would reserve sentence until such time as the court will decide the points so raised.

Justice Ross—I shall reserve a case, but I have not sufficient confidence in the prisoners to reserve sentence.

Mr. Blake made another appeal on behalf of his clients, claiming that justice would be satisfied by the course he advocated or probably they might see the anomaly of an continuation of the proceedings.

Stand up said the court, and to Connelly and Thomas McGreevy, and both prisoners did so.

Justice Ross—I have seen many scenes in many individual life. One of those which is especially trying in the present, when it is two men in the position they are in, who brought themselves off by their own operations. I will try, however, to do justice without excusing anybody. It is, however, impossible not to feel sympathy for them when it is their fellow citizens who are being prosecuted in the same position as they are. As to the verdict, I am entirely satisfied with the view taken by the jury. It is an acquittal, but there can be no reasonable doubt. As to the verdict, it is my duty to say as a lawyer, I am not at all surprised, said Mr. Daly, "nor would you be if you know Winnipeg as well as the people of Winnipeg, who are very anxious, and I have not the least doubt if Winnipeg should become vacant in the course of two or three months the verdict of Wednesday would be exactly reversed. Winnipeg people are like you in their feelings. Now you have it, now you have it."

MARTIN THE MAN.

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN MANY YEARS WINNIPEG ON SATURDAY

WINNIPEG, Nov. 24.—In the bye-election to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Hugh John Macdonald, the Conservative, and Joseph Martin, the Liberal, the latter was elected. The campaign was short and both parties worked with vim and vigor. A large number of outside votes were polled and the total number of ballots cast slightly exceeded the polling at the last general election.

The result: Martin, 2,308; Campbell, 1,770.

Majority for Martin, 538.

At the close of the election, which took place on Monday, March 5, 1891, the vote polled was: Hugh John Macdonald (Con.), 2,181; Isaac Campbell (Lib.), 1,625.

How Many Accounts for Defeat.

OTTAWA, Nov. 23.—Hon. T. M. Daly, Minister of the Interior, was asked yesterday how he accounted for the defeat of the Conservative candidate in Winnipeg. "I am not at all surprised," said Mr. Daly, "nor would you be if you know Winnipeg as well as the people of Winnipeg, who are very anxious, and I have not the least doubt if Winnipeg should become vacant in the course of two or three months the verdict of Wednesday would be exactly reversed. Winnipeg people are like you in their feelings. Now you have it, now you have it."

AGENTS IN AUSTRALIA.

Steps to Promote Canada's Trade With Our Sister Colony.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—Hon. Mackenzie Bowell has appointed agents in all of the principal Australian ports. Hon. Mr. Bowell reports that many openings are being made in Australia for Canadian trade.

The Morning News says that the French colony in Canada is becoming richer every day. It is to be hoped that a war between Roman Catholic and Protestant should be the result of the prosperity.

The Morning Post expresses the opinion that the conspiracy is an unpleasant reminder of the rivalry of the French and the English in the world. They seem to forget that, although an ex-tremes population of the empire, they have been secured in their liberties and rights.

BURNED TO DEATH.

The Body of an Employee Found in a Burned Building.

MONTREAL, Nov. 24.—A serious fire took place yesterday at Messrs. Rolland & Co.'s furniture establishment, 520 St. Paul Street. The damage by fire and water was very considerable, and may reach $50,000.

A young man named Jones was severely injured during the fire. The body of an upholsterer named Hermias Legault, who had been in the room, was found floating last evening in the river. It was thought at first that the poor fellow had escaped to the rest of the men, but the position of the body left no reason to doubt that Legault had been smothered by the smoke in making an effort to leave the burning building.

FOR MURDER.

Verdict of the Coroners' Jury in the Andrews Case.

TORONTO, Nov. 24.—After being out for an hour, the jury in the Denning inquest brought in the following verdict: "We find, on Oct. 21, 1893, did unlawfully, feloniously and with malice aforethought, procure shooting the said Lucy Denning, and the said Lucy Denning did of the effects thereof languish and die, and we say that she, the said Lucy Denning, was murdered."

For a General Bankruptcy Law.

OTTAWA, Nov. 25.—A large delegation from Toronto and Montreal arrived in the city this afternoon and waited upon Hon. George Foster in regard to the insolvency law. They asked that a general bankruptcy law be passed for the Dominion. The matter has been heretofore pressed upon the Government by similar delegations. The spokesmen were D. E. Thompson and Mr. Wilkie, of Toronto, and Mr. Haig, of Montreal. They laid the matter fully before the Minister, who said that he would give their views the fullest consideration.
