Local Item

Canadian stamps bearing the effigy of King George will be put on sale by the post office department within a short time. The Dominion postal authorities were not satisfied with the portrait of the King, which was adopted for the British stamps and which has since been so severely criticised. It was decided to obtain a design for Canada and this has been done.

The many admirers and warm personal friends of Hon. Geo. P. Graham will be pleased to learn that he is likely to re-enter parliament. Mr. Low of South Renfrew having resigned his seat, Mr. Graham has been tendered the unanimous nomination for that riding. With Geo. P. again at Ottawa, the parliamentary proceedings will have additional interest for a large number of people in this constituency.

The government has fixed a new standard for maple sugar and syrup. It declares among other things that there must not be more than ten per cent water in sugar or above 35 per cent water in the syrup. Establishing a standard is alright, but while our government is dealing with this subject a step further might be taken. For the protection of the farmers in the production of these standard goods, the use of the word "maple" on any package of syrup not of the pure standard variety should be absolutely prohibited.

The annual district dairy meeting for the county of Leeds will be held in Victoria Hall Newboro, on Wednesday Nov. 29 at two o'clock under the auspices of the Provincial Department of Agriculture and the Dairymen's Association of Eastern Ontario. Among the speakers will be Henry Glendenning, M.P., President of E.O.D.A., and G. G. Publow, Kingston chief dairy instructor for Eastern Ontario. A. H. Wilson Athens; P. Nolan, Philipsville and S. S. Cheestham Gananoque, will report on their work during the season. J. B. Wilson, Gananoque, will occupy the chair. At the close of the meeting a director will be nominated to represent the district for the ensuing year.

Missionary Anniversary

Mr. W. H. Goodwin, Managing Director of Goodwin's Limited Departmental Store, Montreal, will conduct missionary services in the Methodist church next Sabbath. Mr. Goodwin is a remarkable man and an active worker in the Laymen's Missionary Movement. No one can afford to miss this opportunity of hearing him. —The great retiring sale of Mr. G. W. Beach begins to-morrow (Thursday) morning. An announcement to this effect appears on the 4th page of the Reporter this week and posters, quoting prices, have been circulated over a radius of 25 miles from Athens. The sale of a $15,000 stock in seven days should mean something to prudent purchasers at this season.

ADDISON

Mr and Mrs H. S. Moffat of Jasper were guests in our village on Sunday last.

Mr A. McVeigh and family have moved into their new residence on King St.

Mr H. B. Brown has disposed of his place at Mt. Pleasant to Mr Joseph Greenham.

Mr Joseph Moulton has severed his connection with the Good Roads Association and is at present superintending construction work on a big contract in Brockville for Mr Coleman Lee of Glen Buell.

On Monday, Nov. 27, R. J. Maud, Rockspring, will sell his farm stock implements. E. Taylor, auctioneer.

VILLAGE COUNCIL.

The only business before the adjourned meeting of the village council on Monday evening was the further consideration of the proposal to submit to a vote of the electors a by-law to repeal local option. There was no discussion and only the following motions were passed, the first two on division:—

Moved by E. Taylor, seconded by A. E. McLean, that this council submit to a vote to the qualified electors of the village of Athens for repeal of Local Option By-Law No. 152. —Carried.

Moved by E. Taylor, seconded by A. E. McLean, that the Clerk be instructed to prepare a by-law for repeal of Local Option By-Law No. 152. —carried.

Moved by E. Taylor, seconded by A. Scott that this council adjourn until Monday evening, Nov. 27, at 8 o'clock.—Carried

G. F. Donnelley, Clerk.

ATHENS POULTRY FAIR

This week bills are being sent out announcing Athens' annual poultry fair. The date has been fixed for Friday, Dec. 8, and it is expected that the offering will excel the great fair of a year ago. As usual, preparations will be made to comfortably accommodate all buyers and sellers.

The high prices always paid here will be fully maintained, as the fair will be attended by both American and Canadian buyers. In addition to a good market, the managers offer attractive prizes.

Consult bills for directions as to dressing and be careful and not to scald the birds as when treated in this way they will be bought only at a reduced price.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES

The anniversary services in the Methodist church were of a very high order. Large congregations greeted Rev. Dr. Ryckman, both on Sunday and on Monday evening. The Rev. W. H. Montgomery of the Presbyterian church was present in the evening and assisted in the service. The Doctor's sermons were strong, clear and masterful expositions, and his applications were most apt and practical. A full choir, under the leadership of Mrs. Derbyshire, rendered excellent music, supplemented by Miss Allen of Carleton Place and her sister, Miss Helene, whose singing and violin solos were much appreciated. Miss Culbert, our own soloist, as usual delighted the congregations.

Dr. Ryckman's lecture on "Service versus Success", given on Monday evening, was unique, instructive and inspiring, and was listened to with rapt attention by a large and appreciative audience. Greetings were given by Revs. Montgomery and Westell. Words of appreciation were voiced by Messrs Knowlton, Algure and Rev. Holmes, after which a hearty vote of thanks was tendered to the entertainers.

A TEACHER IN TROUBLE.

Before Magistrate Deacon of Brockville last week, Miss Nora McCrea of Merrickville, teacher in Soper's school, near Frankville, was charged with assaulting Helen McCoubrie, a pupil, aged nine years, who had been adopted from the shelter of the Brockville Children's Aid Society by James McCoubrie. It is alleged that for a trifling offense the child was struck over the head, hands and wrist with the large end of a blackboard pointer and that, when able to attend school, the child presented a protesting note from her mother she was given another whipping. McCoubrie admitted having accepted $500 in settlement of the case, giving a bond of $1,000 that he would not prosecute. When the matter was brought to the attention of Mr. Traill of Brockville he at once instituted proceedings that brought to light all the facts of the case. The child was too ill to attend court. Miss McCrea was committed for trial and admitted to bail.
