Proceedings at the Present December Session of that Body.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON. Yesterday morning the members of the county council adjourned, availing themselves of the invitation of the L. E. & D. R. R. to accompany the spe cial excursion to Rond Eau. It was cal excursion to Rond Eau. It was consequently not until the afternoon session that the regular work of the lay was taken up.

All the members were present, Warden Leverton occupying the chair.

The Warden explained that the presents a carried meeting called to ont was a special meeting called to finally pass the by-law to raise the necessary funds in liquidation of the expenses for the erection of Moravian-town bridge.

town bridge.

The by-law, which provided for the raising of $12,000 for this purpose, was then put through its final stages and signed and sealed.

On motion Reeve Grant, of Dover, was heard, and asked a confirmation of township by-law to close up part of the Big Point road, a new road having been opened. There had been no position to the proposal.

From F. Fox, chairman of Wheatley pablic library, wrote asking for the county grant of $25. The Warden said there was some dispute as to whether the library was in the county, and the matter was referred to finance.

Mr. Robinson, of the firm of Quinlin & Robinson, contractors for the stonework at Moraviantown bridge, asked for a settlement, as the work had been completed and a satisfactory report received from the county engineer.

Roods and bridges.

The Warden's report was here read and adopted. A new covering had been built to Jeannette's Creek bridge at a cost of $325, and Bothwell bridge remainted and repaired at a cost of $195.50. The Jeannette's and Baptiste creeks and. Thamesville and Kent Bridge bridges were all reported in good condition. The Warden also suggested committee to look into the matter of who was liable for youths committed to Industrial School. Report adopted.

adopted.
Under the head of enquiries, Mr Wilson asked how it was that Mrs. Snook was in the House of Refuge as Snook was in the account of a country pauper.

The Warden replied that after the council adjourned last June some of the commissioners met Mrs. Catherine Snook in the hall below and made a givate agreement to send her there.

the commissioners that have ine Snook in the half below and made a private agreement to send her there. Mr. Campbell asked that the private agreement be read.

The clerk read an agreement in which commissioners Caughill, Goshell, Campbell, Sturgis; VonGunten, Rankin, McCoy and Marshall agreed to personally pay Mrs. Snook's expenses if the council refused to assume them. Mr. Sturgis asked why a paupernamed Windover had been refused from Dresden.

Mr. Hickey said he had become a resident of Dresden within two years and could not under the by-law be accepted as a county pauper.

Mr. Hickey moved, seconded by Mr.
Robinson, that the resignation of Judge Houston as county magistrate be accepted, and Chas. Macdonald appointed at a salary of $200 per annum

The Warden suggested that the mat ter be referred to a small committee.

He thought Mr. Houston might be prevailed upon to reconsider the matter.

Mr. Hickey agreed, and it was referred to a committee consisting of Messrs. Sturgis, Rankin and Campbell.

Mr. Caughill moved, seconded by Mr. Rankin, that Mrs. Snook be accepted as a county pauper.

In presenting the motion Mr. Caughill related the circumstances of drawing up the agreement, in the interests of humanity.

The motion was put and carried.

An adjournment was then made till morning to allow committees to meet.

LEHIGH VALLEY TRUNK LINE.

The Lebigh Valley Railroad has finally met with success in the long drawn out attempt to secure the right to lay his track across Communipaw Avenue, Jersey City.

Avenue, Jersey City.

An ordinance permitting the crossing was passed by the Jersey City authorities some time ago, but its operation was held up, owing to an objection from a technical legal standpoint that was raised by its opposer. peration was held up, owing jection from a technical legal standpoint, that was raised by its opposers. The legal objection was removed by the State Court of Errors and Appeals, the decision being handed down at 12.15 p.m. on November 20th. As soon as the decision was announced, the railroad people prepared to get started with the work of laying the tracks which work was completed, four tracks being laid, by 12 o'clock midnight the same day. The street was cleared of all obstructions at 12.40 a.m., and the first train passed over the crossing at 12.50 a.m. A force of about 250 men was employed in doing the work.

SQUIRE M'NAUGHTON BURIED. The funeral of the late Squire Mc-Naughton took place Wednesday afternauguton took place Wednesday after-noon and was marked by a large at-tendance. The obsequies at the house and grave were conducted by the Kev. Dr. Battisby and the Rev. Win. Scott,

The pall bearers were: P. D. McKe-lat, David Smith, T. C. McNabb, Wn. Douglas, John E. Johnston and M. Hous'on. Many beautiful floral trobutes testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held.

Last Saturday he reported to Inspector Kime that something ailed the animals and he feared it was the cholera. The inspector went out on Monday, but by that time 14 of the animals were dead. Mr. Kime pro-nounced the drove badly affected, and nounced the drove badly affected, and killed all the rest. There had been no hog cholera in the neighborhood prior to this, and the only way Mr. Purdy can account for it is that a dog brought the scourge from Wilcox. He had had access to diseased pork there when he came to Mr. Purdy's mixed among the swine. The loss falls very severely on Mr. Purdy, who was just getting into good shape. After a partial failure of his wheat crop he expected to do well by the sale of his hogs, but now has lost them, too!
