At the Brisco Opera House Morris Moving Pictures-All weel

The moving pictures, illustrated songs and the Bebout Children again pleased two audiences at the Brisco Opera House yesterday. The five cent four o'clock matinees are attracting gas stoves state that artificial gas stoves cannot be used for larger growds every day. The performances are well worth anybody's time and the small price of admission. The new pictures last night were thooking for John Smith, Honey-moon at Niagara, The Bold Bank Robbery and Niagara, The Bold Bank Robbery and School and Schoo Niagara, The Bold Bank Robber The Cruel Father, and Washwoman's Quarrel. The Bebout Children did a very elevar musical act and dancing specialty. Miss Thurston sang the songs in a very capable manner. These shows continue daily, with the exception when there is a regular show advertised.

The New York Heraid has the location to locating cable from Paris. There is a man - in Angoulene, a former monomissioned officer in the French army, who is in a position to relate experience that fouch the grave even more cievely than those left on record by poor Fernands beveyod. He can be added to all appearances. The body was laid out and arrangements were made for the funeral. During the might preceding the interment the death watch was terrified to see the supposed corps a make amovement and finally begin struggling.

When they had recovered from their first moments of ferror they went to his assistance and soon had the man as comfortable as possible in ghastly circumstances. He is still in the land of the living.

It appears that nearly thirty years ago he had a similar seizure. On that coesian he was put into a coffin and was actually being lowered into his grave when he awoke. His stilled cries reached the ears of the grave-digres and mourners, the coffin was abroken open and he was hurried flome and soon recovered.

He can certainly boast of his luck, but it would be wise not to confide in it too blindly. A third time may pay for all.
