Minard's Liniment Cures Distemper.

LIVING TOO HASTILY

CANADIAN WOMEN BREAKDOWN
Irregularities and Female Derangements Result—Cured by Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Owing to our mode and manner of living, and the nervous haste of every woman to accomplish just so much each day, it is said that there is not

Miss Irene Hapgood

one woman in twenty-five but what suffers with some derangement of the female organism, and this is the secret of so many unhappy homes.
No woman can be amiable, light-hearted and happy, a joy to her husband and children, and perform the duties incumbent upon her, when she is suffering with backache, headache, nervousness, sleeplessness, bearing-down pains, displacement of the womb, spinal weakness or ovarian troubles.
Irritability and snappy retorts take the place of pleasantness, and all sunshine is driven out of the home, and lives are wrecked by woman's great enemy—womb trouble.

Read this letter:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham—
"I suffered for four years with what the doctors called inflammation of the fallopian tubes, which is a most distressing female disease, undermining the constitution and sapping the life force. If you had seen me a year ago when I had begun taking Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and had noticed the sunken eyes, sallow complexion and general emaciated condition, and compared that person with me as I am to-day, robust, hearty and well, you would not wonder that I feel thankful to you and your wonderful medicine which restored me to new life and health in five months. My friends all marvel at the change it has made in me, but none can appreciate it better than I can myself."—Miss Irene Hapgood, 1022 Sandwith St., Windsor, Ont.

At the first indication of ill health, such as pain or irregular menstruation, secure at once a bottle of Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and begin its use.

Edible Birds' Nest.

The nests eaten by eastern people are made by birds of the swift tribe, which are remarkable for the character of their saliva. This, being extremely sticky, quickly sets into a substance resembling gelatin, of which their edible nests are made. In shape these resemble half a saucer and are usually to be found in caves, attached to rocks.
They have no particular taste, but serve as a basis for thick, clear soup, to which various flavorings may be added at pleasure.

$100 REWARD $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity.
Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure.

Between Friends.

Gladys—Jerrold is saying all round that you are worth your weight in gold. Ethel—The foolish boy! Who is he saying it to? Gladys—His creditors, dear.

Willing to Oblige.

Man in the Street—I don't believe a word of your story, Tramp—One moment, then, mister, and I'll tell you a different one.

Nature "makes all things beautiful in their time." Every one of life's seasons, when life moves on Nature's lines, has its own charm and beauty. Many women dread that period when they must experience a change of life. They fear that face and form may suffer by the change, and that they may fail to please those whom they love. The value of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription in this crisis of woman's life lies in the fact that it assists Nature.
Its use preserves the balance and buoyancy of the mind and sustains the physical powers. Many women have expressed their gratitude for the help and comfort given by "Favorite Prescription" in this trying period. Its benefits are not passing but permanent and conduce to mental happiness as well as physical strength.

There is no greater delight than to be conscious of sincerity on self examination.

Levor's Z-Z (Wise Head) Disinfectant Soap Powder is a boon to any home. It disin-fects and cleans at the same time.

He who forgets his own friends merely to follow those of a higher degree is a snob.

THE HORSE CHESTNUT.

A Theory or Two as to the Origin of Its Name.

The horse chestnut tree is well known, and the nuts are dear to boys and sufferers from rheumatism. But the statement was made lately, and it is even found in some encyclopedias, that the name is given on account of its coarseness: "Like a horse, or like that of a horse; hence, coarse and unrefined." The reflection on the horse is an unworthy one, but let that pass. Is not the explanation given in Gerard's Herbal (1597) a more reasonable one?
"Called in English horse chestnut, for that the people of the east countries do with the fruit thereof cure their horses of the cough and such like diseases."

There is a long list of plants that have animal prefixes—horse, dog, cat, bear, cow, pig, wolf, mouse, rat, toad, frog, dragon, snake, etc. In some instances "the name of an animal prefixed has a totally different signification, denoting size, coarseness and frequently worthlessness or spurrious-ness," but names have also originated from the particular uses to which certain plants have been put, and the horse chestnut is an example. The Turks, Arabians, Persians, all believed that these nuts cured horses of coughs, shortness of wind and such other ailments. In England a preparation of the nut was once used for bleaching yarn.

Yet there may be something in the statement of an Englishman, Alfred A. Millward: "The tree possesses a feature which I have often found to be not generally known. It is a very distinctly marked horsehoe, with seven dots corresponding to the nails of the horsehoe, and this appears at the knuckle of the branches, large and small, but more clearly on the latter."

OUR OLDEST DOLL.

It Was Brought From England Over
Two Centuries Ago.

Long, long ago, when William Penn sailed from England on his second visit to America, what do you think he brought with him on the good ship "Swallow"? An English doll. This passenger is the sole survivor of that voyage across the Atlantic, which was made over 200 years ago.

William Penn had a little daughter named Letitia. Letitia heard her father tell wonderful tales of what he saw and heard in Pennsylvania on his first visit to this country, thousands of miles distant from Letitia's home. He often told her about little Miss Rankin, who, living as she did in the wilderness of Pennsylvania (for this was long ago, remember), had no toys at all, not even one rag doll. When Leti-tia's father was getting ready to again cross the ocean to America his little girl insisted upon sending a doll to that lonesome little girl.

So a doll was dressed in a court costume of striped and delicately tinted brocade and velvet. The skirt was held out by enormous hoops, for such was the fashion of the well dressed ladies of that period. The doll itself is twenty inches high and has the long waist and slender form of the court beauties she left in her native land.
Her hair is rolled back from her face, much in the style of today.

This doll now lives in Montgomery county, Maryland, in the strictest seclusion. She is only removed from her careful wrappings when little girls desire the honor of making the acquaintance of the oldest doll in America.

The Extremes.

Somebody has said that the vices of the very rich and of the very poor are identical. It is a matter of speculation whether their appetites are also similar, for the very poor woman finds great solace in her cup of tea and drinks quantities of it; so also does the rich woman. Alcoholic stimulants are also favored by the one who finds life monotonous from poverty and she who finds it equally monotonous from wealth. One can have nothing she wants; the other has everything she wants; result with both, an almost unbearable discontent.

Amplified.

Proud Parent—If you would win my daughter, young man, you must prove to my satisfaction that you have fortitude, patience under discouraging circumstances, strength of character, courage, an indomitable will to succeed and, above all, an ability to bear with misfortune. Have you these qualifications? Suitor—I've known your daughter for some time, sir, and am asking you for her hand. Do you wish other assurances?

A Primer Lesson.

Why is she so cross?
Oh, she's having a lot of dresses made.
See the other woman.
Why is she so cross?
Because she isn't having a lot of dresses made.

Women are queer creatures, are they not?

More to the Point.

"I want a business suit now," said Slippy. "I was thinking of something in the way of a small paid."

"And I," replied the tailor, "can't help thinking of something in the way of a small check."

A Prejudiced Impression.

"What is your idea of a classic?"
"A classic," said Mr. Cunnock, "is something you have to listen to because somebody else said it was good."

Those who walk most are generally wealthiest. The road of perfect health is too narrow for wheels.

Sunshine Furnace

Water-pan Dry air is light—it lifts and carries dust. Dry air cracks your furniture, gives you a headache, shrivels your skin, parches your lungs.

The water-pan in most furnaces is a plesantry. It has no serious business in the work of the furnace—it is merely placed there for effect, because a water-pan is a good thing.

And a water-pan is an absolute necessity to your health and comfort, but it must be properly placed to radiate moisture evenly and uniformly throughout the house.

The water-pan of the Sunshine Furnace is the most scientifically arranged water-pan in any furnace in the world.

It does the work a water-pan should, and does it well.

TAKE MY CURE,

WHEN CURED YOU PAY ME

The fear that you could not be cured may have deterred you from taking honest treatment or you may have been one of the unfortunate who have been treated in vain by inexperienced physicians, free treatments, free trial samples, patent medicines, electric belts and other similar devices. Such treatments cannot and will never cure you, nor will these maladies cure themselves. You need a cure, and an intelligent man will not hesitate to pay for a cure, and have such faith and confidence in my continued success in treating these diseases that I should convince the skeptical that I mean what I say, and do exactly as I say. I am positive of curing you in the shortest possible time, without injurious effects. My charges will be as low as possible, and my guarantee is simple and true. Not a dollar need be paid until cured. I have 14 diplomas and certificates from the various colleges and state boards of medical examiners, which should be sufficient guarantee of my standing and abilities. It makes no difference what has failed to cure you, it will be to your advantage to write to me for my opinion of your case, which I give you free of charge. I want to hear from patients who have been unable to get cured, as I guarantee a positive cure for all chronic, nervous, blood and skin diseases, which I accept for treatment. I not only cure the condition itself, but likewise all the complications, such as rheumatism, kidney and bladder troubles, blood poison, physical and nervous debility, lack of vitality, stomach troubles, etc. All medicines for patients are prepared in my own laboratory under the supervision of each individual case.
I will send a booklet on the subject which contains the 14 diplomas and certificates, entirely free. Address simply,
Dr. R. Goldberg, 306 Woodward Ave., Suite 311
Detroit, Mich.
