Tact has its basis in unselfachases. It grows out of thinking of another while you are talking or dealing with him. Frem though a man may be exercising fact for selfach parpose, he must give the other person first laces in his thoughts and plan for the time being, in order to enable him to be factful. Tact grows out of and indicates consideration for the rights and feelings of others 1 hack of tact shows a lack of consideration for their feelings and their rights.
