PORT WILLIAMS HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Mark Regan went to Midd on Monday, being called there on account of the serious illness of her brother's wife, Mrs. Anderson Lockwood.

Mr. Erle Bauckman spent the week end in Windsor.

Mr. Fred Cogswell, of Belcher Street, went to Halifax on Saturday, returning on Wednesday.

Mrs. (Dr.) Best, of West Pembroke, Maine, a former resident of Port Williams, and one who will be remembered as Miss Lulu Fisher, has recently been admitted as a patient in the "Henry Phipps" Psychiatry clinic of the John Hopkins Hospital under the treatment of the celebrated Dr. Adolf Meyer.

Miss Pauline Lockwood, of the telephone staff, of Wolfville, spent Sunday with her parents here.

Miss Jean Murphy, of Halifax, accompanied by a friend spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Murphy.

Mrs. Campbell Clarke left on Feb. 28th for St. John, where she will attend the millinery openings.

About twenty persons braved the bad roads of Feb. 27th and went to Canard to attend the farewell service which was held in the Baptist Church for Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Prosser and were well paid for their going. There were six pastors on the platform, and each one spoke in well fitting words, a loyal tribute to Mr. and Mrs. Prosser, recognizing the very wonderful work they have accomplished during the seven and one half years in which they have been with the first Cornwallis Church. At the close of the service the chairman Mr. Walter Eaton, presented Mr. Prosser with a substantial check, also Mrs. Percy MacDonald, on behalf of the W. M. A. S. presented Mrs. Prosser with a very fine gold bracelet watch. To these gifts each responded in a few well chosen words. One of the most touching incidents of the evening, was a farewell song, sung by six pupils of the Sunday School at "Gibson's Woods" where Mrs. Prosser has worked so long and so faithfully. This work has been Mrs. Prosser's own special work, and through sunshine and storm she faithfully attended to it, and has already seen the "fruits of her labors". May the work still be carried on with earnest effort. After refreshments were served many "Good Byes" were said and everyone bids them "God Speed" as they enter upon their new field of labor at Bridgetown.

The social of the "Loyal Workers" S. S. class, which was to have been held on Tuesday was postponed until Friday, March 2nd, at 7.30 p. m. Every one is invited to attend and enjoy the programme also the refreshments. A silver offering will be taken at the door.

Miss Gwendolyn Fullerton entertained a number of her friends to a skating party and dance on Feb. 28th.

The regular meeting of the "Women's Institute" of Port Williams will be held in their room at "Citizens Hall" on Thursday, March 8th, at 2.30 p. m. The speaker for the afternoon will be Rev. Ross. Collins, who will give glimpses of his travels in Europe. Every one come.

The Institute is planning to hold a concert on Mar. 9th in "Temperance Hall". The program will consist of both vocal and instrumental music, violin, and readings; also a playlet given by the school children.

The children's carnival which was given on Saturday afternoon, Feb. 24th, was quite a success. Among the prize winners were Madeline Elliott, Donald Harvey, Ivan Beanson and Winston Cogswell.

On Tuesday evening another carnival was given for the adults. The prize winners were: 1st, Miss Laura Hanson (Hallowe'en); 2nd, Miss Hilda Thomson (Britannia) for the ladies; and the gentleman's prizes were given to Mr. Gerald Eaton, and Miss Dorothy MacKinnon.

Miss A. M. Cogswell is in Avonport this week being called there on Monday to relieve Miss Miner, nurse.

The piano fund of the S. S. is steadily growing, being enlarged this week by the sum of $25.00, a gift from Senator Nathaniel Curry. A few weeks ago Mrs. Sarah Rhodes, sister of Senator Curry, made a donation of $25.00 also. Both Mrs. Rhodes and Senator Curry were born and lived here in Port Williams, and they have certainly not forgotten their childhood home and friends, of whom there are still a few remaining.

Dr. Zwicker, of Belcher Street, went to Berwick on Wednesday.

The "Lily of the Valley" Division No. 440, met as usual on Monday evening and enjoyed a fraternal visit from three Division workers who are students at Acadia University. Each one entered into the spirit of the meeting and brief addresses were listened to with much interest from each of the three. We hope they will repeat the visit again soon.

Mr. Joseph Hill, who has been working as carpenter for Mr. G. H. Gates this last year, has moved back to West Gore.

Mr. Robie Thomson has gone to St. John with his brother Gordon, who has been successful in securing work for him.

A comparison of the per capita taxation in Great Britain, France and the United States, given by Stanley Baldwin, British Chancellor of the Exchequer, in the House of Commons, shows: Great Britain, direct taxes 210 shillings; indirect 122 shillings; France, direct 242 francs; indirect 193 francs; United States, federal taxes direct 57 shillings, and indirect 57 shillings. The figures tell plainly how much heavier are the French and British burdens than those of America.

CANARD NOTES

A number from Canard attended the skating party held in Canning rink on Tuesday evening. Canning brass band under the leadership of Mr. L. M. Ward rendered good music. Supper was served by the ladies.

Lower Canard Institute met at the home of Mrs. William Cox, Canard, on Friday of last week.

Charles Wallace, of Upper Canard, is spending a few days in Halifax.

Miss Bessie Hennigar, of Canning, left on Monday for Boston, where she will attend the Millinery openings.

Mr. C. S. Bars, of Wolfville, left this week for the West Indies. During his absence Mrs. Bars will be with her mother and sister at Lower Canard.

Mr. and Mrs. P. G. McDonald will go to Halifax for the Summer. They have taken a house at North West Arm. They will be much missed at Canard.

A farewell reception was held in the Baptist Church on Tuesday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Prosser. The church was filled and a very pleasing program was rendered. Addresses were given by Dr. DeWolfe, Revs. Hodgson, Barber, Chipman, Logan and Ross; also a history of the church during the seven years of Mr. Prosser's pastorate was given by Miss Gertrude Eaton, showing the church's progress during that time. Mrs. P. G. McDonald then presented Mrs. Prosser with a gold wrist watch, the gift of the ladies of the church, and spoke of Mrs. Prosser's work among the people and their regret at her leaving Canard. A purse of $100.00 was presented to Mr. Prosser from the church. The good wishes of all go with Mr. and Mrs. Prosser to their new field of labor at Bridgetown.

IRELAND

Although the past week brought news of many acts of vandalism by Irish irregulars, it also brought news of the capture and surrender of several groups of those who have been resisting the Free State government's authority. Today there are again current rumors of a more hopeful outlook for peace. Apparently, negotiations are in progress which it is believed will result in greatly weakening, if not entirely breaking up, the irregulars. Beyond a doubt, the Free State government is today accepted by all but a comparatively small but very active minority of the Irish people. This minority is steadily losing in numbers and influence. The government is making it easy for those who want to leave the irregular ranks to do so, and the best informed observers of Irish conditions are convinced that the end of organized opposition is near. De Valera and a few irreconcilables may carry on a last ditch struggle, but the policy of murder and arson is rapidly weakening their influence.—St. John Globe.

SAYS DRY LAW NOT A FAILURE

One of our exchanges contains a long and rather pedantic editorial under the head "Why the dry law is a failure." In which it is held that the law has failed to function and the bootlegger is getting rich peddling his questionable wares. There is no desire to take issue with this learned opponent of the 18th amendment, but from personal observation we feel satisfied that the dry law is working to the moral betterment of the country. We do not take this position as a fanatical supporter of prohibition, for we opposed prohibition in territorial days and opposed it as a state measure, wholly on the same ground assumed by this editor who feels that the law is a failure, personal liberty. We have seen the error of that position and would neither support nor vote for a modification of the present constitutional amendment.

The reason that we assume this position, so at variance with a former stand, is that we have lived to see that the restriction of the sale of liquor has worked to the happy advantage of all the people. Take Oroville, for instance. Under the old reign of King Rum it was a common and disgusting sight to see men reeling drunk on the streets, making a beastly show of themselves, before men, women and children. Passing saloons one's ears were assailed with boisterous and brutal profanity, men participated in nightly orgies and conditions prevailed that were repulsive to every clean thinking human being. Since the dry law went into effect we do not remember of seeing a single drunken man on the public streets and the swearing, quarreling, boisterous scenes formerly so common in this balliwick have been eliminated. That people do drink and get drunk, sad be it said, is true from the reports that seep into this office, but the drinking is done under cover and is gradually growing less and less and if the law continues on the statute books, in time these unfortunates cursed by the thirst will die off and in generations yet to come the young people will know nothing of the demon and the word "saloon" will be beyond their comprehension.

A year ago we spent six months in three large cities and recently returned from a trip that embraced several cities. In our leisure hours we tramped far and wide over those cities visiting places that were familiar and seeking out new sights. In all our peregrinations we did not see a single individual, under the influence of liquor. On the train, on the water fronts, in those regions formerly designated as below the dead line, there was no intoxication. Could any one imagine that such a condition could exist in the days before this country went dry? The dry law is defied. So are all laws defied, but because the law is defied by a comparatively few is no reason to claim that the 18th amendment is a failure.—Oroville (Wash.) Gazette

Great Britain is said to have furnished the United States with 45,449 immigrants since June, leading all other countries, Italy coming second with 42,057. Evidently the movement to settle British immigrants in various parts of the Empire does not make as strong an appeal to the British themselves as it does to Canada, Australia and South Africa.

When you are feeling tired after a hard journey or a long day's work, there is nothing you can get which will touch the right spot so quickly as a steaming hot cup of MORSE'S SELECTED ORANGE PEKOE TEA.
