PRESENTATION TO A GUELPH BOX.—The Hamilton Times says: A very pleasant surprise stock place at Gore street church at the close of the watch night service on Wednesday night—rasher on Thursday morning, when the New Year was but a few minutes old—when Miss Kelly, one of the Sunday School teachers, on behalf of the church, presented Mr W S Galbratih with a handsome gold watch. An appropriate address was read by Mr M Furniss, Superintendent of the Sunday School. Mr Galbratih is about to leave Hamilton for the Rockles, and Gore street Sunday School will miss him very much, as he was one of the foremost workers in both church and school. The church was crowded on the occasion of the presentation, and all were delighted at the honor done one so well liked. The watch was from the store of Mr E K Pass, No 91 John street south. SUDEN DEATH IS OWEN SOURD.—OR TURNERS evening as Capt John Wood was doing some chores at his home on the shore, Bay View, he suddenly fell dead from the buruting of a blood vessel. The news next morning called forthlexpressions of server from peoplejof every class, the genial captain being a favorite with everyone. The decoased was a retired salt water captain of large experience, who was born in the Orkney Islands, and after a long and useful career in the merchant marine came first to the village of Arthur, where he resided for some stime. About fitteen years since he moved to Owen Sound to be near the water. The deceased was about 70 years of age.

NARROW EFGAPE FROM DEATH.—The Action Free Press says: Last Friday aftermon excolonacillor Wm Ismond recolved news concerning his daughter Mabel, at present residing in $1 Louis, Mo, that she had been fatally shot. Telegrams and letter@brought the following particulars; On the night of the 17th or 18th Deo, Mabel was aroused from her sleep by a fire alarm and arouse, passed through the room in which her slieter-in-law was sleeping and raised a from the fire. This alarmed Mrs Ismond—Mix Ismond was away from home—and, concluding that a burglar was effecting an entrance, raised her revolver and fired. The shot took effect in Miss Mable's left side but fortunately was only a fissh wound and, although the victim is still confined to her bed, her physician has pronounced her ontirely out of danger. Mrs Ismond was almost frantic with grief when she saw the true condition of affairs, but all are thankful that this bright young life was not suddenly out off at the hand of one of her best loved friends.
