NEWCASTLE, MIRAMICHI, N. B.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 20, 1879. THE SCOTT ACT. THE many friends of the temperance cause in this County will perhaps be surprised to learn, that the Judges of the Supreme Court have declared the Act passed by the Grits, ful. during their term of office, and which was supposed to be framed in the interests of temperance and sobriety, reform will appeal to the higher Court, but should they do so, we have little or no hope that the Judgment lief upon the ground, that invariably, those entrusted with the power of legislation have with few exceptions forts of those whose highest ambition is to bar up the doors of the drinking saloons, and to place the victims of ing the ability of the late Grit Government to frame and give to the counpable manner in which the Election Act was framed, which when tested, was found also to be ultra vires, to the great relief of quive a number of their friends who had obtained their seats by bribery and corruption. The sooner the advocates of sobriety awake up to the fact that they can expect very little legislative aid to assist them in their laudable efforts, the betier will it be for the Cause they advocate. Now, how does the Manager know, if he did not enquire and the reason he enquired is patent to all. The man who gave him the information was, no doubt the gentleman that expected to dispense the patronage of the County. Won't somebody tempt the Advance to draw a comparison. It would be a pretty picture when done.
