PATENTS

obtained for new inventions, or for improvements in old ones. Caveats, Trade Marks, and all patent business promptly attended to.

INVENTIONS THAT HAVE BEEN REJECTED may still, in most cases, be patented by us. Being opposite the U. S. Patent Office, and engaged in PATENT BUSINESS EXCLUSIVELY, we can secure patents in less time than those who are engaged in Washington, and who must depend upon the mails in all transactions with the Patent Office.

When inventors send model or sketches we make search in the Patent Office and advise as to the patentability free of charge. Correspondence confidential. Prices low, and NO CHARGE UNLESS PATENT IS OBTAINED. We refer to Hon. Postmaster General D. M. Key, Rev. P. D. Powell, to officials in the U. S. Patent Office, and especially to our clients in every State of the Union, and in Canada. For special references, terms, advice, &c., Address

C. A. SNOW & CO.,
Opposite Patent Office, Washington, D. C.

Canada Temperance Act.

FIRST PART.

PROCEEDINGS FOR BRINGING THE SECOND PART OF THIS ACT INTO FORCE.

PENALTIES.

64. No person shall—
Firstly: Forge or counterfeit or fraudulently alter, deface or fraudulently destroy any ballot paper or the initials of the Deputy Returning Officer signed thereon; or—
Secondly: Without authority supply any ballot paper to any person; or—
Thirdly: Fraudulently put into any ballot box any paper other than the ballot paper which he is authorized by law to put in; or—Fourthly: Fraudulently take out of the polling place any ballot paper; or—Fifthly: Without due authority destroy, take, open, or otherwise interfere with any ballot box or packet of ballot papers then in use for the purposes of the poll.

No person shall attempt to commit any offence specified in this section: Any contravention of this section shall be a misdemeanor; and any person found guilty thereof shall be punishable, if he be a Returning Officer, Deputy Returning Officer or other officer engaged at the polling, by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for any term less than two years, with or without hard labour, in default of paying such fine; and if he be any other person, by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, with or without hard labour, in default of paying such fine.

65. Every officer who is guilty of any willful misdemeanor or any willful act or omission in contravention of this part of this Act, shall forfeit to any person aggrieved by such misdemeanor, act or omission, a penal sum not exceeding five hundred dollars in addition to the amount of all actual damages thereby occasioned to such person.

66. Every officer and agent in attendance at a polling place shall maintain and aid in maintaining the secrecy of the voting at such polling place;

and shall not communicate before the poll is closed to any person any information as to whether any person on the voters' list has or has not applied for a ballot paper or voted at that polling place:

(2.) No officer or agent, and no person whosever, shall interfere with or attempt to interfere with a voter when marking his vote, or otherwise attempt to obtain at the polling place information as to how any voter at such polling place is about to vote or has voted:

(3.) No officer, agent or other person shall communicate at any time to any person any information obtained at a polling place as to how any voter at such polling place is about to vote or has voted:

(4.) Every officer and agent in attendance at the counting of the votes shall maintain and aid in maintaining the secrecy of the voting; and shall not attempt to ascertain at such counting, or communicate any information obtained at such counting, as to how any vote is given in any particular ballot paper:

(5.) No person shall, directly or indirectly, induce any voter to display his ballot paper after he has marked the same, so as to make known to any person how he has marked his vote:

(6.) Any contravention of this section shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, with or without hard labour, in default of paying such fine.

67. A person shall, for all purposes of this Act, be deemed to be guilty of the offence of personation, who, at the polling of votes under this Act, applies for a ballot paper in the name of some other person, whether such name be that of a person living or dead, or of a fictitious person, or who having voted once at any such polling applies at the same polling for a ballot paper in his own name.

68. The offence of personation, or of aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring the commission of the offence of personation by any person, shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars, and by imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months.

69. The offence of personation shall be deemed to be a corrupt practice within the meaning of this Act.

70. No polling of votes under this Act shall be declared invalid by reason of a non-compliance with the rules contained in this Act as to the taking of the poll or the counting of the votes, under the provisions of this Act, or of any mistake in the use of the forms contained in the schedules to this Act, if it appears to the tribunal having cognizance of the question that the polling of votes was conducted in accordance with the principles laid down in this Act, and that such non-compliance or mistake did not affect the result of the polling.

PRESERVATION OF THE PEACE.

71. Every Returning Officer and every Deputy Returning Officer from the time he shall have taken the oath of office until the day after the summing up of the votes, shall be a conservator of the peace, invested with all the powers appertaining to a Justice of the Peace.

72. Such Returning Officer or Deputy Returning Officer may require the assistance of Justices of the Peace, constables or other persons present, to aid him in maintaining peace and good order at the polling, and may also, on a requisition made in writing by any agent, or by any two electors, swear in such special constables as he deems necessary.

73. Such Returning Officer or Deputy Returning Officer may arrest or cause to be arrested by verbal order, and place in the custody of any constables or other persons, any person disturbing the peace and good order at the polling, and may cause such person to be imprisoned under an order signed by him until any period not later than the close of the poll.

No person shall attempt to commit any offence specified in this section: Any contravention of this section shall be a misdemeanor; and any person found guilty thereof shall be punishable, if he be a Returning Officer, Deputy Returning Officer or other officer engaged at the polling, by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for any term less than two years, with or without hard labour, in default of paying such fine; and if he be any other person, by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, with or without hard labour, in default of paying such fine.

65. Every officer who is guilty of any willful misdemeanor or any willful act or omission in contravention of this part of this Act, shall forfeit to any person aggrieved by such misdemeanor, act or omission, a penal sum not exceeding five hundred dollars in addition to the amount of all actual damages thereby occasioned to such person.

66. Every officer and agent in attendance at a polling place shall maintain and aid in maintaining the secrecy of the voting at such polling place;

and shall not communicate before the poll is closed to any person any information as to whether any person on the voters' list has or has not applied for a ballot paper or voted at that polling place:

(2.) No officer or agent, and no person
