New Brunswicker, a native of Sunbury County, comes of a respectable family, and is some-times called Minnie. Her career has been a checkered and a shady one. Six years ago she worked a very nice little game on a well known broker in St. John, and was tried for forgery and acquitted. Last year it transpired that she had raked in $40,000 or $60,000 in New York, by a swindling scheme called the "Ladies Stock and Mining Exchange."
