Ed. Lambert has opened a general grocery and dry goods store on East Jasper, in a building recently vacated by the Western Canada Contractor, in the last two issues, has a number of excellent illustrations of Edmonton with complimentary references.

The public schools of the towns and cities in the province will open next Monday. Many of the country schools have been in session since August 13.

Some have placed a sign in one of the numerous schools on Namayo avenue, reading, "No fishing in this pond. By order."

All Saints' church Sunday school, which has been closed during the past two months, will re-open at the usual hour on Sunday next, August 26th.

Rev. Mr. Myers, who has been away for a holiday of some weeks, has returned, and yesterday occupied his pulpit at Queen's avenue church in the morning and evening.

Rev. J. B. Wallwin, pastor of the Empire avenue Methodist church, London, Ont., who is spending a few days in the city, assisted in the evening service at McDougall church on Sunday.

The Sunday school of Queen's avenue Presbyterian church will have its annual picnic on Civic holiday, Friday, Aug. 22nd. A good program of sports will be provided and dinner served.

Rev. Dr. McQueen has returned to Edmonton from a holiday spent with his family at Gull Lake. Dr. McQueen occupied his pulpit yesterday at the morning service, preaching an eloquent sermon.

F. M. Hacking, who has held the position of accountant at the Merchants Bank, has been promoted to the post of manager of the Vegreville branch, to succeed C. E. Morton, who has retired from the service to embark in his real estate business.

A committee of the young men of All Saints' congregation are making a canvass for funds to place a new communion table in the church, which will more fully meet the requirements of the church. It is proposed to raise $200, and hand the same over to the rector, Archdeacon Grey, on his return from his holiday trip, and allow him to purchase a suitable table.

C. Myren and wife, an elderly couple from Ponoka, were guests at the immigration hall on Saturday. They are grandparents of the three little girls who were killed in the cyclone south of Vermilion several days ago, and were on their way to visit their son, whose homestead is on the river, about thirty miles south of Vermilion. The old people had just learned of the disaster the day previous, and were heartily heart-broken over the calamity.

J. D. Hyndman has been asked by the committee arranging for the Maritime province picnic in Calgary, to be their representative in Edmonton, and will supply any information desired regarding the picnic which will be the largest of its kind ever held in the west. The picnic will be held at Victoria park, Calgary, on Wednesday, and invitations are extended through the press to all Maritime Province residents in Alberta. An interesting program has been arranged of races, Scotch dances, etc. Admission to the grounds is free.

Quint's Daily.

Last week W. A. Grist, of Sedgewick, cut eleven acres of beardless barley that will yield at least 65 bushels to the acre.

The son of Rev. A. D. Macdonald, who accidentally shot himself in the knee last week, was yesterday removed from the Public Hospital to his home as convalescent.

As the election for alderman has become a three-cornered contest, Mr. C. Ross Palmer, one of the nominees, has decided to retire, but may be a candidate at the election at the end of the year.

Work on the government road north from Morinville to the Pembina, via Edison, is being vigorously prosecuted. The present road east and Edison is in bad condition, and the first attention of the government will be given to this position.

A. Gibson, of Edison, has been appointed foreman of the work on the western section of the road and will hurry along construction operations.

Three serious operations were successfully performed on Monday at the general hospital. The patients are all doing well.

Feaving operations were begun this morning on the southern part of McDougall avenue, about which there has been so much complaint during the past few days.

A meeting of the Teamster's association of Edmonton will be held on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in Hueston's hall. Business of importance will be before the meeting.

W. Beauchamp, proprietor of Mandard's new hotel, is in the city today. He states that the grain crop in that district looks fine and there was no damage from frost this week.

There was a fair sized audience at the Edmonton opera-house last night to see the rural drama A Fair of Country Kids. The performance was very good in parts and provided plenty of fun. It will be repeated this evening.

Miss E. B. Spence died last night at the Misericordia hospital after a brief but critical illness. The remains will be taken to the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. John Staunton, 324 Clata street. Funeral notice later.

A bucking horse on Jasper avenue this morning about 8.30 created quite a large amount of excitement. The animal, after throwing the driver out of the wagon, proceeded to demolish it and had pretty well done so when he was released.

Sidney W. Morris has returned from White Whale lake, where he has been on a health trip for the past five weeks. Mr. Morris has severed his connection with the musical department of Alberta college and has opened a private studio at 628 Eighth st.

John C. Morris and W. N. Baden, of Fort William, are spending a few days with Edmonton friends this week but will leave at the end of the week for White Whale Lake, where they are engaged in the construction of the C. N. R. between White Whale and Lohsick lakes.

Alberta is already beginning to feel the shortage of farm laborers, and there is considerable demand at the immigration hall these days for agricultural help. Assistant Supt. Best today received an enquiry from Bittern Lake for half a dozen men, but could not find an idle person around the hall, the arrivals so far all having work in sight or being on the hunt for land.

A. A. Ballantyne, of Atwood, who has disposed of his farm in Perth county, and who has been looking over Alberta with a view to locating, has decided that the prairie country at Mannville, between Vermilion and Saskatchewan rivers, is the ideal spot for him, and left the city this morning, accompanied by John Turnbull and James Bellamy, of Duluth, to take up land there.

PERSONAL.

T. M. Grindley returned this week from a trip to the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Eke, of London, Eng., are guests at the Castle this week.

E. Eaton, B.A., of Acadia University, recently principal of the business department of the Maritime Business College, Halifax, has arrived in the city to take a position in the department of Alberta College. Mr. Eaton holds a diploma from the Business Educators' Association of Canada and last year stood first in the international examination of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Nova Scotia.

NEW CITY OFFICIALS.

J. J. Cumming, who has been in charge of the city telephone service under Mr. Morrison, has been appointed head of that department. Mr. McLean, late of Vancouver, who was assistant in that department, has also been appointed superintendent on probation.

GRAVEL PLANT STOPPED.

The Saskatchewan river rose four feet Friday as the result of the heavy rains and owing to the height of the water and its swift current it was impossible to carry on work this morning at the Huff gravel dredging plant near the bridge. The dredge was driven into the water it was with difficulty rescued from the current.

CAUGHT IN BELT.

Arthur Mezgatchey, foreman on the Huff crusher, which is at work on the belt of the machine on Saturday, was badly shaken up and scratched, and on arm severely bruised, before he could be rescued. He was brought to the Public Hospital for treatment, and is now resting comfortably there.

CLOVER BAR PICNIC.

The picnic held on Friday last under the auspices of the Epworth league, was a decided success. A team of footballers left Edmonton shortly after 3 o'clock in two buses. A pipe organ, a prominent place on the way, and discouraged music on the way, and also during the game. Clover Bar has a good team, and with practice should be able to give a good account of itself with any team in this district. The game ended in favor of the Edmonton Ramblers by a score of 2 goals to 0. The following represented Edmonton: Marshall, Miles, Harvey, Christie, Strathdee, Geiffiths, Hope, Dykes, Espin, Armour and Small. An excellent supper was provided after the game. Some amusement was caused by the plunk forming the seat breaking and letting the "ceasers" down. A concert was held in the church later, and proved most enjoyable. Several members of the football team rendered songs, the choruses of which were sung by the other members. Special mention must be made of Miss Hutton's rendering of "Killing Time," which was enthusiastically encored. At 10 o'clock the Edmonton boys left after singing "Auld Lang Syde," and giving three hearty cheers for Clover Bar. All are delighted with the reception accorded them, and hope to have the pleasure of attending the picnic next year.

'PHONES OUT OF ORDER.

Practically all the city telephone service is out of order today and in many cases it is impossible to use the city instruments owing to the buzzing of the lines. In the case of the long distance "positively no use can be made of the outside lines.

The trouble is caused by the crossing of the telephone and electric light wires. The workmen of the departments were out this morning endeavoring to locate the place of contact and it is expected the lines will be all right again this evening.

SUCCESSFUL STUDENTS.

The following is a list of students from Alberta College who have been successful in the examination held here in July by the Toronto Conservatory of Music. First prize, Miss Anna Stoenes, first piano examination; first class honors, Miss Violeta Butchart; honors, Miss Eva Howie; pass, Miss Eva Stoenes. First piano examination, first class honors, Miss Muriel Wilson (Strathcona); honors, Miss Ruth Somersall (Strathcona); honors, Miss Annie Symon. Second piano examination, first class honors, Miss Hazel Anderson; honors, Miss Mabel Grant (Strathcona). Third piano examination (final), honors, Miss Hazel Anderson.

Toronto Conservatory examination, junior piano, pass, Miss Margaretta Williams.

THREE NOMINEES FOR ALDERMAN.

Returning Officer Harry J. Helliwell held a court this forenoon from eleven to twelve in the city hall for the purpose of receiving nominations for the vacant aldermanic seat.

The first name proposed was that of J. D. Blaney, who was first to come in at twenty minutes to twelve. His supporters on the nomination paper were H. H. Hull, G. D. Armstrong, Claude Gallinger and A. Butcher.

Next to come was that of George M. Maxwell, who was supported by J. R. Harper. Other supporters were John I. Mills, R. McIntosh, E. H. Strickton, J. H. Jackson, R. Spencer and James A. Powell.

C. Ross Palmer was the last name to be proposed by P. E. Lessard and seconded by J. D. Hyndman.

A few minutes before the strike of the noon hour John H. Brenton appeared and procured nomination papers, but did not state that he was striking the hour he stated that the candidate which he intended proposing could be named.

There are thus three candidates in the field and the election which takes place next Monday promises to be a lively contest.

'LITTLE DAMAGE FROM FROST.

Gen. Harcourt, deputy minister of agriculture, gave it as his opinion this morning that the damage from the frost yesterday was not great. A minimum of damage to crops in the Edmonton district. No reports have reached the department of agriculture of any damage in other portions of the province. In some instances the potato vines were blackened but this was not generally the case. Some wheat crops were damaged to an appreciable extent. D. W. Warner, of Clover Bar, president of the F. A., states that Clover Bar district escaped damage almost entirely.

CONSERVATIVE PICNIC.

Preparations are now being made for the political picnic in Ledue Park on the 2nd of September. Under the auspices of the Conservative association. The speakers arranged for are: Hon. Senator Loughheed, Mayor Greig, and Hon. J. B. Leavelle, of Edmonton; Captain Thomas, of Camrose, and O. P. Klein, of Ledue, the last named speaking in German.

TRIP TO LANDING.

J. E. Boyle, M.P.P., and Hon. E. W. Cross, left for this morning for the New York. During his absence Rev. A. Schultz will have charge of the church services. Mr. Boyle will represent the Rocky Mountain branch of the Alumni Association in the hundred and twenty-seventh session of the Horizon Theological Seminary at Bethlehem, Pa.

LABOR DAY PROGRAM.

At the regular weekly meeting of the Labor Day council on Tuesday night, arrangements for the Labor Day parade and sports were completed.

H. Nash, president of the Plumbers' union, was appointed grand marshal for the procession, and T. Westman, of the barbers' union, was selected as one of his assistants, and a second will be chosen at the next meeting.

The parade is due to move promptly at 10 a.m., and the local unions will form at 8.30 at Garrison facing west. The route of the march will be Jasper to McDougall to Rice to First to Athabasca to Third to Jasper to McDougall and south to exhibition park, where the day's sports will be held.

It is expected the procession will reach the front at 11 a.m., and immediately thereafter a rugby football match between the newly organized Edmonton and Strathcona teams will be played. This game it is expected will terminate at noon, and will be followed by a lacrosse match between a team of old timers captured by Wm. C. Pratt, and twelve newcomers selected from the Edmonton lacrosse team in charge of W. Powers. The play will go on an hour, and then will come the comic baseball contest between teams which have not yet been selected, but which are guaranteed to give the crowd a great exhibition of the Yankee national sport.

Commencing at 2 p.m. a first class line of running, jumping, and various athletic events will be pulled off which will keep the crowd occupied for the balance of the afternoon.

SNOW DOWN SOUTH.

Passengers who arrived yesterday afternoon reported that three inches of snow fell yesterday in the district around Red Deer, but apparently there was no fear of damage to the crops. In Strathcona this morning there were thin sheets of ice on the ponds in many places. No serious damage, however, is anticipated to the crops.

TO PLAY TENNIS IN CALGARY.

This morning Messrs. J. M. Kinnear and Dawson Campbell, of the Strathcona Tennis club, left for Calgary, where they will take part in the tennis tournament which begins there tomorrow. Messrs. Kinnear and Campbell are probably the best players of the club, and it is hoped that they will both do good work in the singles and doubles at the southern city.

STRATHCONA TEACHERS.

Considerable difficulty has been experienced by the school board of the public schools of Strathcona in securing teachers to fill the vacancies caused by the resignations of Miss Blain and Miss Marks. Several gentlemen have been offered the position held by the former, but though each at first accepted, he afterwards declined. Yesterday Mr. Graham, formerly of the teaching staff of a Chatham (Ont.) school, was appointed and has accepted the position. Mr. Graham is at present in the city. The second vacancy will be filled by Miss Kirkwood of Inga.

In the evening there will be a dance to the Mechanics hall on Third street, at which the committee are offering handsome prizes for the best lady and gentleman waiter in attendance.

The C. M. R. band of thirty pieces will lead the parade, and sixteen unions will be in line. The fire brigade will also take part, following the fallows, the last union in the march. The fire fighters with apparatus will form on Fraser avenue. Drivers of floats appearing in the procession will assemble at Kinistone avenue facing south, and will take up a position behind the firemen, who join the ranks at Fraser avenue.

Strathcona Locals

Just one week from today the city schools of Strathcona reopen after their summer vacation.

Dr. W. W. McQueen, of Langdon, North Dakota, is visiting his brother, Dr. McQueen, dentist.

J. W. Brown, of the staff of the Strathcona hospital, has returned from a trip of four weeks to the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McFarland are expected home early this week from their two months visit to the coast.

In the absence yesterday of Rev. W. R. George at Wetaskiwin the pulpit of Holy Trinity church was occupied by Rev. Arthur Murphy.

J. F. Weir has secured a store in the addition to the Dugan block at the corner of Whyte and East railway and expects to move into it about the first of October.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Brinkman have today returned from their trip through Ontario. They expect to be absent about two months and are planning a very enjoyable trip.

To a large congregation last night in the Baptist church Rev. J. R. Bowler preached the first of his series of special sermons. His subject was "Friendship and his text, 'There is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.'

WILL PRESS THE PROSECUTION

Attorney General's Department Active in Lumber Combine Prosecution.

A representative of The Bulletin called on the Hon. Mr. Cross this morning, before he left on his trip north, in relation to the pending prosecution against members of the alleged lumber combine. In the course of the discussion, Mr. Cross said that his department intended to prosecute this matter with the utmost vigor and no stone would be left unturned to bring all the facts in relation to the alleged combination between the lumbermen before the court when the case comes on for trial at the next sitting of the Supreme Court. The investigation at Ottawa has, of course, brought out a good many facts, but the department desires to be in possession of all the available evidence in connection with the matter, and there go back with him Mr. Cross and has been refused should communicate with the Attorney-General's Department by letter, giving details and his complaint will be thoroughly investigated, and if it is found that his evidence will assist the department in this way it will conduct to a thorough investigation and will serve the ends of justice.

100 FAMILIES MAY COME NEXT YEAR

To Alberta From Saratov Russia—German-Russians Now Looking Over Land Here.

E. Cohen, for the past twelve years a resident of Johannesburg, Transvaal, S.A., who reached Edmonton with his wife and son about six weeks ago and promptly took up land in the Peavine prairie, and who has been in the city a few days this week purchasing a housekeeping outfit and also some cattle, leaves again for his home today.

During his stay in the city he has done some good settlement work for the section in which he is located, and there go back with him Mr. and Mrs. Knight and young son, who arrived at the immigration hall from Kansas last week. Mr. Knight is an agriculturist of some means and is taking along a span of horses and some implements.

Mr. Cohen's bright picture of prospects in the Peavine section has also induced Carl Lounhardt, Henry Schneider, Yoric Jacob Venner, Geo. Venner, Jacob Venner, Christ Schneider, Henry Schneider, and H. K. Lounhardt, a contingent of eight ex-residents of Saratov, Russia, who arrived in the city on August 13th, to take up land in that neighborhood, and they are leaving the city for the northwest tomorrow. The eight are Germans by birth, but moved to Russia some years ago. For the last twelve months they have been working in Chicago, where the wives and families of the three first named are at present stopping, but who will come on to Alberta as soon as their husbands locate. Henry Schneider states that they have come to this country to examine its agricultural possibilities and if they find it a desirable place to settle there are close to a hundred families at Saratov that will emigrate to Alberta next year.

ENTRANCE TO SENATE BURNED

By Fire Which Threatened the House of Commons at Ottawa Monday Night.

Ottawa, Aug. 20.—The Parliament buildings of Canada were threatened with destruction by fire last night. Telephone and electric light wires crossed at the entrance to the Senate side of the building, and set the wood work on fire. The blaze had considerable progress when discovered. The entrance was practically all consumed. An alarm brought out the city firemen, and the fire was extinguished.

NEW Y. M. C. A. BUILDING.

Work is now being rushed on the new Y. M. C. A. building at the corner of May and Howard streets and it is the expectation of the directors to have it ready for occupancy by the first of December.

The dormitories which have nearly all been spoken for will be ready, it is hoped, by the beginning of the New Year.

The bricklayers have now reached the third story and will have the fourth finished within a month. The inside work, much of which has already been prepared, will then be rushed ahead.

The May Sharpe Construction company are the contractors and the architects Magoon, Hopkins & James.

Baggett, conductor, serious; David Reynolds, Marion, Ia.; Frank Mitchell, fireman; Carl Mershon, Oelwein, Ia.

KEEP CLOSE CHECK AND REPORT THEM.

Ottawa, August 17.—The superintendent of immigration has addressed a circular to the police department and coroners throughout the country asking information about any immigrants who appear before police magistrates and coroners as criminals. With such information supplied, the department would be able to keep a close check on undesirable immigrants and deport them.

Frank Kerr of Winnipeg, who has charge of all licenses there except those pertaining to liquor, was this week at Montreal and Ottawa, making inquiries as to eastern methods of treating with immigrants, distributing charities, collecting fees for restaurants, etc. and getting a lot of general information that will be made use of for the benefit of Winnipeg.

ENJOYABLE OUTING.

A number of Strathcona people were the guests of Jo-n Walter in a very enjoyable trip yesterday afternoon by steamboat down the river to the new Clover Bar bridge. The trip was made by Mr. Walter's steambot Strathcona, and among those present were Mrs. Walter, Mrs. A. J. McLean, Mrs. Arthur McLean, Misses Dixon, Peel, Blain, McLean, Burns, Fuller, Kempton, Biskney, Bell, Lyle, Beale, McLeod and Misses Bellard. The gentlemen included Mr. Walter, G. W.
