THE COLD WAVE.

New York Bay Frozen.

BOSTON BLOCKED WITH ICE.

Another Tremendous Snow-Storm.

TERRIBLE WORK OF THE BLIZZARD.

Fisheries Negotiations at a Standstill.

HALIFAX, N.S., Jan. 25.

Extreme cold in New York continues. The Bay is frozen and ice-yachting is extensively indulged. Boston harbor is also blocked with ice.

Yesterday a tremendous snow-storm was experienced in the maritime provinces. The steamer Sarnia is still in port. All the trains are blocked and roads are impassable.

Over a thousand persons have perished in the Western States' blizzards. Many districts have not yet been heard from.

A Washington despatch says the fisheries negotiations are at a stand-still, and there appears to be no prospect of a settlement.

FROM CAPE RACE.

(Special to the Evening Telegram.)

CAPE RACE, This Evening. A northwest gale prevails here to-day, with heavy snow-squalls. A fore-and-aft schooner went west yesterday afternoon.
