"God Save the King"

The news of the illness of His Majesty the King will be a matter of much anxiety to British and even foreign people throughout the world. His Majesty is now in his 69th year and has been for some time subject to fainting fits and to throat and other ailments at intervals. At present he is confined to his room from an attack of bronchitis, and the gravity of the illness kept two physicians in attendance throughout the night, while a third one was called in. The three physicians are of the highest eminence and well acquainted with His Majesty's bodily constitution from attendance on him. The good spirits shown by the King is a gratifying feature of the intelligence, as worry might well have been expected. His Majesty is faced with trying political differences which will tax the nerve, tact, good humour, sound judgment and the general health of the high personage who must eventually adjust the differences, obviate the dangers and make peace between the warring constitutional elements. Such a situation calls for the best that is in a man in the best of health and is no situation for a sick man, and that His Majesty is seriously ill there can be no doubt unfortunately. His illness is considered grave enough for the issue of an official bulletin signed by the three physicians in attendance.

TIME WAS UP

It Was Quit Coffee or Die.

When a woman is brought to the edge of the grave by poisoning from the drinking of ordinary coffee day by day, and is then made a well woman by leaving it off, her experience is worth something to others that are poisoned in various ways from the same habit.

A New Haven, Conn., woman says: "Four years ago my life hung on a very slender thread with liver, kidney and heart trouble, and a very severe form of rheumatism. I was confined to bed with hands, wrists, feet and ankles so badly swollen that they bore no resemblance to parts of the human body."

"I had frequent sinking spells from heart weakness when I was thought to be dying and sometimes thought to be dead. My Doctor, one of the directors of the State Hospital, a very successful man in his profession, told me to stop drinking coffee and use Postum, as he said coffee was the primary cause of my trouble."

"I took his advice at once and also discontinued medicines. Slowly the swelling disappeared, and the rheumatism left me; the sinking spells became less frequent, and I got out of bed and around the house. I was completely cured but it required some time."

"For the past three years I have been a perfectly strong, healthy woman, sleep well, with good appetite, good color, active and energetic."

"It is a great pleasure to testify for Postum which has made me a well woman again. I have many friends here and in other parts of the state who are using Postum regularly, and I know to their very great benefit."

Read the little book "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

once who express their anxiety as to the condition of the King. It is peculiarly unfortunate and distressing that the King's illness should assume a grave phase at a time when the constitutional struggle is assuming an acute form. The constitutional difficulties which the King apprehends, and which are more momentous than any which have occurred for many a generation, must intensify the trouble and aggravate the distress caused by bodily ailment. At the best of times, "Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown," as Shakespeare puts it, but much more so in times of political troubles. Hopes ran high that the King's personality, his remarkable tact, the high esteem in which he is held by all parties, his sound judgment would ease the situation and render the solution easier. But for such tasks health and strength are prime requisites. For these reasons and because of the love which goes out to the King, many thousands of prayers will go up on High that "God Save the King."

Western Notes.

Some good catches of codfish have been taken up to date. Fishermen say, the prospects for a good voyage are encouraging. Herring is also plentiful at Black Duck Brook.

The indications of a good codfishery in Port au Port Bay, and in fact all around the Peninsula, are very promising. During the absence of ice, and other favorable conditions, our fishermen were enabled to begin operations at an earlier date than usual this year, and with remarkable good results up to the present. Herring are also plentiful. Along the North Shore of Bay St. George lobsters have already made a good showing.

There is very little actual labor in connection with the fisheries at Stephenville now. The few people who are setting for herring have not done much up-to-date; and those interested in the codfishery are working from Fox Island in the mouth of Port au Port Bay, where codfish and herring are said to be very plentiful.

Catch of Seals for Spring, 1910.

Herewith we give the catch of seals for the past spring with the weights, net value and total number of men. The total catch for 1908 was 213,863. Gross weight, 4,537 tons, 10 cwt., 2 grs., 16 lbs.; net weight, 4,342 tons, 0 cwt., 1 qr., 21 lbs.; Net value, $375,442.62. For 1909 the total was 269,302 seals. Gross weight, 5,776 tons, 4 cwt., 3 qr., 9 lbs.; net weight, 5,459 tons, 9 cwt., 1 qr., 25 lbs. Net value, $458,020.45. Twenty ships prosecuted the voyage these two springs, but last year the Virginia Lake and Vanguard were lost. It will be seen that this year's catch is greatly in excess of the past two years:

Total seals	333,849
Young harps	298,761
Old harps	10,255
Young hoods	6,389
Old hoods	4,045
Bedlamers	13,903

Gross weight, 7,627 tons, 19 cwt., 2 grs., 28 lbs.; net weight, 7,303 tons, 2 cwt., 2 grs., 27 lbs. Net value, $627,853.62. No men, 3,363.

There were 20 steamers out; one was lost and one man also was lost.

HARD TO GET MEN.—As time goes on there is less and less experienced every day in Trinity and Bonavista Bays in getting crews to man the schooners for the Labrador. In some cases planters have written to their merchants here in St. John's to sell their schooners as they are unable to get crews for the Labrador fishery. A large number of men are preparing to go on the railway.

MR. PETER QUIGLEY DEAD.—At his residence, Topsail Road, at 5.30 p.m. last night, Mr. Peter Quigley, a well known farmer, passed away after a short illness. Deceased was in his 67th year and was a hard working, industrious man. He was well known in the city. He leaves a wife but no children. Labor Day Fetes.

At the meeting of the Trades and Labor Council held Tuesday night arrangements were practically completed for the Labor Day Celebration and fetes this summer. Labor Day will be observed on Tuesday, July 5, and a special holiday for the occasion will be asked for so that this may not clash with the sports of any other club or society in the city. There will be a joint parade of all the unions in the forenoon, and the procession will be the largest ever seen in the city. Eight bands of music will accompany the demonstrators, and the Labourer's Union have imported 2,000 handsome badges for the occasion from the United States. The coopers, carpenters and firemen have done the same. A series of sports will be held at St. George's Field in the afternoon to conclude with a Lark Harbor Regatta. At night over 600 guests will attend a banquet in the Star of the Sea Hall after which grand dances will be held in the various halls of the city.

POLICE COURT NEWS.

To-day Judge Knight had the busiest time of it since taking up the duties of Magistrate. Three drunks were discharged; a fourth was fined $1 or 3 days; 3 disorderlies were released with a caution; and 4 others were each fined $2 or 7 days; another was fined $5 or 14 days. Dinn arrested at midnight on a charge of being drunk and disorderly and breaking the door of Kennedy & Mullaly's office was fined $25 or 3 months. Constable O'Neil summoned 3 young men for loose and disorderly conduct (and damaging the property of Wm. Taylor, on George's Street, one was fined $10 or 30 days, and two others, $2 or 14 days each; while a fourth, the ringleader in the affair, was fined $20 or 30 days. Several civil cases for rents, debts, etc., were adjudicated upon in the C. D. Court.

Those Thefts.

The lad charged with stealing $80 from Mr. Morris, the sailmaker, and who left by the shore train yesterday morning was arrested by Detective Sgt. Byrne on the railway last night and he will be brought to the city by to-night's train. His parents, like the other lads, are very respectable people and are to be sympathized with. In the case of the boy from the Water Street Office, a search warrant revealed the fact that the boy had a lot of cash hidden away. The police found $485 stowed away in one place in his room, and $40 and $60 in another, while it was gleaned that he had given small sums to other boys, companions. He took the money within the last few days and certainly could not be in his senses. To-day the police are holding an enquiry into the case.

Nine Elephants in Big Stampede.

DANVILLE, Ill., April 27.—Several persons were injured and much property was damaged to-day by nine elephants which stampeded just after they had been unloaded from a car. A large bull elephant made the first break for liberty and was followed by several other bulls and a few females. For several hours the elephants were at large, hunted by all the attaches of the circus, all the city policemen and the more venturesome citizens. The elephants stopped for nothing except brick and stone buildings.

At the home of Joseph Peebles, after overturning a shed and killing a horse, one of the animals attacked Peebles and hurled him against the side of the house. Peebles is in a critical condition. Barney O'Neil, a liverman was thrown from his wagon by the elephants and Karab, one of the keepers, was hurled against the side of a barn and injured. Several other persons were slightly injured. More than ten homes were damaged to some extent, but the total loss will probably not exceed $10,000. One elephant is still at large, and a force of attendants with trusty elephants spent many hours to effect its capture.
