CITIZENSHIP.

Americans have long been noted fc1 the attention they pay to their flag. On all occasions they float the Stars and Stripes. Every school house has its flag post, and on it flies venerate and honour. Not only is is "it" not only in the eyes of Ameriaverage American men. But in spite of this patriotism, but in spite of this innate belief in everything American, there are horrible cankers in the body politic: the domination of railway, oil, beef, ice and other trusts is dividual, than was ever attempted by feudalism in its palmiest days. Yet, withal, the slaves of these rings b€lieve themselves the freest men on earth, and that all men within the confines of the Union are free, as their historic Declaration of Independence sententiously sets forth. germs of better things, which may de- tic actor, as Bud Larrabee-will be passed away at her late residence in velope and regenerate the whole body the attraction at the People's Theatre that city. #### Valuable Find of Silver.

Workmen Employed by Railway Contractors Made the Discovery.

Port William, June 2.- A vein silver samples which assay $1,500 to the ton has been discovered in a rock quarry property of Stewart and Hewitson, the Port Arthur contractors, about half way between that city and Fort William. The discovery was made by workmen who called the firm's attention to the rich mineral formation in the diabase rock. The silver was found fifteen feet below the surface in pockets, and with a definite vein leading to a large tract of quarry belonging to the same firm
