To Our Customers:

We desire to take this opportunity to announce the change which will take place in our St. John's management at an early date.

We wish to acknowledge our grateful obligations to Mr. Hiscock for his faithful service to our interests, and much regret the severance of so many years of pleasant relationships. We know he has earnestly endeavored at all times to serve to the best of his ability our customers, as well as his company and his record with the trade testifies to the satisfaction he has given both.

Our St. John's business will be in charge of Mr. James Bransfield, a man born and raised in Newfoundland and who has been connected with this company for over twelve years. He needs no introduction to the most of our customers but will take an early opportunity to renew old friendships and make the acquaintance of those whom he has not met.

There will be no other changes in our organization nor will this change affect the trade as the head office will continue to do business in Boston as heretofore.

We also desire to take this opportunity to thank you for your many business favors in the past and hope for a continuance of same.

We see better times ahead for Newfoundland than for some few years past, and we trust we shall be mutually benefited by it.

Yours very truly,

ROBINSON EXPORT COMPANY.

Richness.

Crisco is all fat. There is no stearine added to the original oil in its manufacture. Its moisture content is less than one tenth of one per cent. Crisco is the rich cream of edible oils. It is as rich as any fat can be. Women who have used Crisco praise it very highly and it is now by far the most popular cooking fat. At all grocers.
