

The Evening Telegram THE EVENING TELEGRAM, LTD.

to The Evening Telegram, Ltd., and not to individuals.

Friday, November 27, 1925.

World-Wide Tribute to the Queen Mother a crowded

Flag fect than on the previous evening. The flies and in many other coun- concert company are to be congratutries as well, citizens of all lated on the success of their entercreeds and classes will have paid tainment which, it, is hoped, may be their last respects before to-day closes to Her late Most Gracious Street Car Majesty Queen Alexandra. The same impulse moves the countless thousands, whether assembled in the cathedrals and work at the hour appointed for ed their affection from the mo- car hit it with much force, doing purple for the occasion. ment of her arrival in England damage to the front wheel and sideover three-score years ago, and who during the long period that has elapsed since then, endeared herself to the people by her Boston Terra many gracious acts and her wonderful depth of sympathy.

This morning all that is mortal of the late Queen Mother will be laid to rest in the Royal ory will long be cherished by at St. Rose Hall, Worcester Street. throughout the people length and Empire.

Shut Out the Undesirable ville.

Since the passport system was discontinued in Newfoundland, little if any check has been kept upon immigration, with the result that a considerable number of individuals, S. Fidelle. either in search of fresh fields to conquer, or to whom it has been hinted elsewhere that their ther time to arrange for a hall for Be Thou our guard while troubles presence was not desired, have the proposed illustrated lecture and and our eternal home. Amen. planted themselves in this dance. country.

One such individual attracted Charged With considerable attention the other day; another is at present under observation; during the past few months several have victed and fined $200 about a forth-recited: landed in the toils, and how night ago for stealing a motor car "Man that is born of a woman hath many others are roaming at belonging to H. Peddigrew from Par- but a short time to live, and is full of large it is impossible to say. son's Garage was arested under war- misery. He cometh up, and is cut rant yesterday afternoon by Detectives down, like a flower; he fleeth as it It may also be mentioned that certain peddlers of foreign nating the motor car from the garage of honds of questionable of que value, reference to whom was prisoner will appear before court this made in the Telegram mountly afternoon. made in the Telegram recently. have been warned that in the event of their returning to S.S. Mahone a Total Loss Newfoundland on a similar venture they would be dealt with promptly by the authorities.

Yesterday arrernoon the following out end.

message was received by the Deputy out end.

3. Thou turnest man to destructions from the Collect. promptly by the authorities. Minister of Customs from the Collect-

In other countries it is con- or at Codroy: sidered desirable to ascertain "S.S. Mahone, of Burgeo, drove full particulars about all per- ashore Codroy Island, 24th. Is now a total wreck. Had on board at the time about 400 qtls. dry codfish." sons desirous of settling down or even of paying a visit, and circumstances make similar enquiries equally necessary in this Island, particularly as at named French arrived by train from tempts are being made to en- Clark's Beach last night, and was imcourage tourists, for it follows as a matter of course that once the Island becomes a popular resort, there is bound to be a considerable influx of undesirables, who will consider it a happy hunting ground for pursuits that do not come within the category of legitimate sport. Under the Act dealing with immigration it would appear that the authorities have all the powers necessary to deal with the question, and all that is required is a tightening up on the regulations particularly at such places as St. John's and Port aux Basques raudeville artistes, and "Alfreno, several of our charitably disposed

CROWDED HALL AGAIN GREETS

The dector escaped uninjured

Novian Association

(Newfoundland Weekly, Boston.), ation of the officers for next year were held and the results were as follows:

1st. Vice-Pres .- John F. Powers.

Sec. Edward J. Molloy.

Chairman of Visitors-Edward

Trustees-James J. Wilcox and

Sergeant at Arms-Michael Byrnes.

A young married man who was con-

PATIENT FOR HOSPITAL -

male patient for the General Hospita

mediately removed to the institution

HIS MAJESTY REPLIES TO

MESSAGE OF CONDOLENCE

His Excellency the Governor has received the following message from the Secretary of State

His Majesty the King has com-manded me to convey to you his sincere thanks for the expres-sion of warm sympathy of the Government and people of New-foundland conveyed in your telegram of twentieth of Nov.

(Sgd.) Secretary of State for the Dominions:-

2nd. Vice-Pres .- William Joy.

Treasurer-Richard Powers.

For President-Robert J. Sommer-mmerville, in the chair.

Queen's College

circus for the kiddies as

Citizens Unite in Paying Last Tribute to the Late Queen Mother

Most Gracious Majesty Queen Alex- vants apacity were His Excellency the ed adversity. Concert Repeated

ernor and Lady Allardyce, attend- 16. Shew Thy servants Thy d by Captain Goodfellow, Captain and their children Thy glory. last night by Queen's College students, ous bodies: The Consuls and Vice-Consuls of the foreign countries; of voice ficers and members of the Constabul- 2. O let Thine ears consider ary: representatives of the different Hits Motor Car The Bishop and the clergy including epresentatives from the Presbyterian therefore shalt Thou be feared. Church and the United Church, preskidded on the track near Canon Wood, ing as Chaplain to His Lordship, and the funeral service—the regard Hall, and before the driver could con- carrying the pastoral staff. The trol the machine, an oncoming street sacred edifice was draped in black and presentatives of the G.W.V.A. and the ctor escaped uninjured Garon Jeeves, M.A., Rector of the put temporary out of Lanedral, and the Lesson was read eeves, M.A., Rector of the Canon Bolt, M.A., Bishop's siary. His Lordship the Bishop delivered the Address.

The Order of Service was as fel-

"Funeral March" ... The regular monthly meeting of the Boston Terra Novian Association was held on Tuesday, November 17th, 'O God, our help in ages pas > Sufficient is Thine Arm alone, Before the hills in order stood, Or earth received her frame,

To endless years the Same. usand ages in Thy sight Are like an evening gone; Short as the watch that ends the night Before the rising sun.

Bears all its sons away They fly forgotten, as a dream Dies at the opening day.

The entertainment committee re- o God, our help in ages past,

Then followed the opening senten-THE ORDER FOR THE BURIAL OF THE DEAD.

Stealing Motor Car THE DEAD.

Then the following Psalms with Sentences from the Burial Office were

Where their heart and treasure Where our life is hid on high. Sentences from the Burial Office were

1. Lord, Thou has been our refuge: from one generation to another. 2. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the earth and henceforth blessed are the dead which the world were made: Thou art God die in the Lord; Even so saith the from everlasting, and the world with- Spirit; for they rest from their lation; again Thou sayest, Come again, ye children of men. 4. For a thousand years in Thy sight are but as yesterday: seeing that is past as a watch in the night.

5. As soon as Thou scatterest them, they are even as a sleep: and fade away suddenly like the grass. 6. In the morning it is green, and groweth up: but in the evening it is cut down, dried up, and withered.
7. For we consume away in Thy displeasure; and are afraid at Thy wrathful indignation.

8. Thou hast set our misdeeds before Thee; and our secret sins in the

The solemn and impressive Nation- | 13. Turn Thee again, O Lord, at the 14. O satisfy us with Thy mercy of church and state, and by an im- 15. Comfort us again now after the time that Thou has plagued us: for

17. And the glorious Majesty of the Mediator and Redeemer.-Amen. son; the members of both branches Lord our God be upon us: prosper-Thou the work of our hands upon us,

> PSALM CXXX. (De profundis). 1. Out of the deep have I called unto Thee, O Lord; Lord, hear my the voice of my complaint. branches of the Civil Service, and re- 3. If Thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to 4. For there is mercy with Thee

5. I look for the Lord: my soul doth wait for Him: in His word is my trust. the morning watch.

7. O Israel, trust in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy: and with Him plenteous redemption. 8. And He shall redeem Isreal: from all his sins.

"Yet, O Lord God most holy O Lord most mighty, O holy and most merciful Saviour, deliver us not into the bitter pains of eternal death." PSALM XXIII. (Dominus regit me). 1. The Lord is my shepherd: there-

2. He chall feed me in a green pasture; and lead me forth beside the

The red and The staff comfort me who for more than 60 years has see in hearts that have been touched to 5. Then shalt prepare a table before cupied an unique place in the hearts tenderness by the example bequeathme against them that trouble me; of the British peoples, Alexandra, Thou hast anointed my head with oil. and my cup shall be full.

6. But Thy loving-kindness and of the Lord for ever.

to our prayer; but spare us, Lord most better—the memory of a sweet and the full notes of universal sorrow holy, O God most mighty, O holy and gracious personality that for all those there will be heard to-day at least merciful Saviour, thou most worthy years contributed richly to the firmer an undertone of thankfulness—for in Judge eternal, suffer us not, at our establishment of the Royal House in Alexandra God gave to us a rich last hour for any pains of death, to the affection and regard of the Na- blessing. For more than 60 years fall from Thee."

THE GLORIA. THE LESSON. Ecclesasticus XLIV., 1-15. ANTHEM.

Day by day the voice saith, "Co Enter thine eternal home;" Asking not if we can spare Priest: "I heard a voice from hea ven, saying unto me, Write, from

Let us Pray Lord, have mercy upon us. Christ, have mercy upon us. Lord, have mercy upon us. Our Father, &c. Priest: The souls of the rights

Answ. And there shall no to Answ. But they are in peace. Priest: Our help is in the name of It is an accepted fact, I believ the Lord; Answ. Who hath made hea the spirits of them that depart hence ous jewels, which represent the trabe so strong that they come to fourscore years; yet is their strength then but labour and sorrow; so soon passeth it away and we are cone.

1. But who regardeth the power of Thy wrath for even thereafter as a man leareth, so is Thy displeasure.

12. So teach us to number our days:
that it hath pleased Thee to deliver Thy servant ALEXANDRA, are pleaged a great tradition which we are pleaged to maintain, and of which our crowned King is the personal representative. There has emerged a great tradition which we care pleaged to maintain, and of which our crowned King is the personal representative. There has emerged a great tradition which we care pleaged to maintain, and of which our crowned King is the personal representative. There has emerged a great tradition which we care pleaged to maintain, and of which our crowned King is the personal representative. There has emerged a great tradition which we care pleaged to maintain, and of which our crowned King is the personal representative. There has our crowned a great tradition which we care pleaged to maintain, and of which our crowned King is the personal representative. There has our crowned a great tradition which we care pleaged to maintain, and of which our crowned King is the personal representative. There has our crowned as the prevailing symbolism of our national flag, the sense of duty.

That was many stoppy our hearts unto the beginning of the world: Grant ork this, we beseech Thee, O Merciful the Father; through Jesus Christ our ality The Grace of our Lord Tosus Chelst and the love of God and the fellow

When the dark waves round us rol And we look in vain for aid. Speak, Lord, to the trembling soul,— "It is I; be not afraid."

When we weep beside the bie

Oh! may then the mourner When with wearing hopeless pain Sinks the spirit sore dismayed. reathe Thou then the comfort-strain "It is I; be not afraid."

When we feel the end is near Passing into death's dark shade, May the voice be strong and clear,—"It is I; be not afraid." Amen.

THE ADDRESS. (By His Lordship the Bishop of Newfoundland.)

LEXANDRA, THE QUEEN MOTHER ral to join with us in paying a fitting for what she was and what she did. mon consent as "the Peacemaker." the Queen Mother.

attempt even a brief survey of the British nation can confidently look mercy shall follow me all the days of life of the late Queen. The most to the Royal House as the embodimy life; and I will dwell in the house outstanding events of any life, how- ment of its ideals of the purity of its ever highly exalted, are apt to be for- family and individual life, we can "Thou knowest, Lord, the secrets of gotten. But we have as a permanent thank God and take courage.

tion. though quietly and unostentatiously low to kindly action, to thoughtfulexerted, was amongst the prime for ness for others: it has ennobled ces that made for the true greatness countless lives and showed them the grateful remembrance; his estimate lowly gratitude what we all owe to will depend upon his point of view, God for the graces vouchsafed to us but as he sums up the reign of the in the person of His servant. amidst all the demands and respon- upon her." sibilities of a great Empire gave much of his time and thought to the been, I might almost say, the chief occupation of the Queen Mother dur Released from earthly toll and strife, ing the past 15 years, the connection between the activities of her widow-hood and those of her former days as Edward's wife and Queen is quite obvious. Motherhood was in her onsecrated thing, and it expressed itself not alone in the purity of her family life but in all those tender ministries to which Christian mother-to us of our national traditions. The history of the Nation hangs round it like a necklace, studded with glorious jewels, which represent the traditions which have been worked out of its long and chequered career. Through long centuries of structures of structures. our days are gone; we bring our years in the Lord, and with whom the souls to an end, as it wers a tale that is of the faithful, after they are deliverted from the burden of the fiesh, are in joy and felicity; We give Thee hearty score years and ten; and though men thanks, for that it hath pleased Thee much of democracy. In its nam thrones and empires have tumbled in the dust. But the thron of our King-the most democrati be more solidly based than ever Mere forces could not guarantee such security. More and more, personal contacts have had results. Affection not mere loyalty, is the strong co hesive force which binds Sovereign and people together. And the beloved Queen, whose memory we ho to-day, as Princess, Queen and Queen Mother, reaped for her family and for her own person a generous fruit age of love as year succeeded year It has withstood the storms and trials which from time to time have broken across our national life; and it will remain as a cherished heritage now that in the Providence of God that warm and loving mother heart is stilled in death. And so in years to come as our children read the story of our nation's life it will be the teacher's joy King, Edward VII., known by com- the walls of those institutions which her influence and effort have helped And now the Nation is called to to rear up, and in which suffering mourn the passing hence of her, humanity find hope and healing; but ed by her life. Characters such as It is not necessary that I should any nation. And so long as the that life has shed a radiance over all it is not really difficult to believe classes of society, especially in our that the Queen Mother's influence, motherland. It has inspired high and of Edward the VII th's reign, com- nobility of service. And hence whilst aratively short as it was. we are one in heart in expressing.

The future student of history will our deep sympathy with our King assign various reasons why this King and his family in their bereavement or that should be held in proud and -we do well to acknowledge with late King he will be forced to the "May the Queen Mother rest in conclusion that here was a man who peace and may perpetual light shire much of his time and thought to the relief of the sick and suffering, and in general to corporate works of mercy.

God of the living, in Whose eyes Unveiled Thy whole creation lies; All souls are Thine; we must not say That those are dead who pass away;

Not spilt like water on the ground; Not wrapped in dreamless steep pro-found. Not wandering in unknown despair Not wandering in unknown use. Thy Beyond Thy voice, Thine arm, Thy

Holder of the keys of death, O Giver of the life within, save us from death, the death of sin

THE BENEDICTION. Pause for Silent Prayer. THE DEAD MARCH ing which the Congregat ORGAN VOLUNTARY.

Christmas & New Year Photo-Mount Galenders

Dainty Photo Mount Calendars make delightful and very inexpensive Christmas Gifts.

We've just opened the loveliest little Photo Mount Calendars for 1923 you ever saw. They're surely ideal as inexpensive and attractive Christmas and New Year Remembrances.

Already dozens have been sold, therefore you'd better see them before they are all "picked over"; and should you need Snap-Shots printed for mounting, we advise you to let us have them Eight

GET-ED, SERVICE & SATISFACTION

Tooton's, the Kodak Store

Bon Marche Specials

With every purchase here you get 1000 Votes for every dollar spent for that Pony.

have a case of 100 dozen of Winter Weight 69c. Ladies' Fleece Lined Uunderweap. Per garment ... Special Line of Ladies' Wool Gauntlet Gloves. All shades: Light and Dark. Per Pair ...... See our Children's Fleece Lined Underwear-all sizes, White Special Line of Men's Wool Tweed Pants; all sizes $2.35 and heavy winter weight. Per Pair .: ....

Store Open Every Night.

BON MARCHE

Come and see the Best SCREENED NORTH SYDNEY Now Landing ex. S.S. Hillbrook. IN STORE:-

> BEST ANTHRACITE ASK THOSE WHO ARE USING IT.

A. H. Murray & Co. Ltd. Coal Office 'Phone 1867

SQUIRES & CURTIS

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS & NOTARIES Bank of Nova Scotia Building, St. John's.

NOTE:-Sir Richard Squires, K.C., has resumed practice and may be interviewed by appoint ment only at the offices of the firm.

Popularity Voting Contest

Mrs. M. V. Kinsella, 22,050; Miss Dorothy Ebsary, 21,375; Miss Marion Moore, 20,775; Miss Stella Crane, 17,325; Miss Fannie Coady, 14,775; Miss Olive Turner, 9,475; Miss Bells Junn, 8,550.

Stafford's Phoratone oughs and colds.—nov18,tr Shipping

Schr. Blanch G. has cleared i aultois for St. Pierre taking 20 ca

S.S. Geraldine Mary has arrived otwood from London with 30 reight and 4 passengers. MEETING POSTPONED-The nual meeting and election of office of the Star of the Sea Ladies' Association ation, which was to take place last night, was postponed until next wee owing to the unfavourable weather

Winners of Daily AT BOWRING'S.

The following persons have the winners of LADIES' DRE GOWNS, during the past week Nov. 19th-Mrs. Tilley, 39 W Nov. 20th P. Legge, Hear

Nov. 21st-Jas. Woodford, Nov. 23rd—J. Plood, 58 Nov. 24th—A. S. Darby, Bro

Nov. 25th-R. Cole, co Steen Only a few days more to prize Come in and register name source - galar

Bewring Brothers,
Drapery Department nov27,11

Would you like $20.00 minutes thought, see 01 ad.__nov25,27

Arthur

two nev oid Fever. City Eng of Water Depts. ticularly f the tem Southsid of pedestr necessary nlar traffic he Rock Sh nd night. also repor

35c. garment up w with th water, etc. will be giv ext season ecessary g attention to the fact broad to the re being ipal Regula y property Windsor nese individu yees working nd supervision tat the logs present be ayor tabled rpool, and rick Bowrin Mayor, verpool. or of Sain on to I

9th, 1925. ho has w Position