reaching the platform he walked steadily on to the trap, where his legs were bound by masked executioner. At this point to requested, with a perceptiole falter, that he might be allowed to die on his kides. His requested was compiled. The executioner then placed the cup over his braid and while this was being done he said was by the week 10 cents. His requested was complied. The excentioner then placed the cap over his head, and while this was being done he said "Tae Lord be mereiful to me." Rev. Mr. Fish exhorted him to look to Jesus for succor, and the doomed man repeated the exclamation. Rev. Mr. Carroll asked him next if he was sorry for what he had done, and he replied carelessly, "I am sorry for the part lought to be rorry for," and added "If I have committed the murder, I am now about to suffer misery here and here after; Lord be mereiful to me and take me to thy rest." Rev. Mr. Fish here commenced to read the Lord's prayer in deep silence, and upon arriving at the words "Thy will be done" the bolt was drawn. The fall was about ix feet, but this was not sufficient to break the man's neck. His frame was convulsed slightly twice, and these were succeeded by a somewhat stronger convulsion, which passed over the whole of his body. At the expiration of nearly fifteen minutes the movement of the palse was felt, but at the end of the fifteenth minute it was not perceptible. Death was produced by strangulation.

English Water Colour Cromos.—A splendid lot received direct from the old country, will be sold cheap at Anderson's Bookstore.

A Philadelphia bookkeeper added the year 1872 to his column of figures, and, as he couldn't account for the deficiency in receipts, he was arrested.

Day is selling the balance of his fine books and fancy goods, suited for New Year's gifts at reduced prices.

The editor of the Duluth Heraid publishes a proclamation saying, "We shall jerk a living out of this city during the coming winter, or we are much mistaken." Grear value in juvenile books, wax and china dolls at Day's Bookstore. Day reduces the price to clear them out this New Year's.

New Year's.

"You must be a quarrelsome fellow," said a phrenologist to a man whose brings he was examining. "Say that again and Don't pay a dollar for a book that Day will give you for 50cts. See Day's large stock of $1.00 and $1.25 books which has marked devin to 50cts. Examine them. No trouble to show them at Day's Bookstore.

Interesting to Volunteers.—An important article in the outfit of a soldier is a good medicine in a convenient form, and the "Camadian Pain Destroyer" is just the article; it cures wounds, bruises and frost-bites, and is the best medicin that can be used for diarrhoea, and summer complaints generally, and it is a sure cure for rheumstism, and that class of complaints brought on by exposure or fatigue. Price 25 cts. per bottle, to be had of all medicine dealers.
