The special services which have been going on in the Methodist church for the past six weeks, were brought to a close on Sunday evening last, with the most interesting service of the series.

The stage for St. Thomas leaves Aylmer every morning at 8.30, arriving at St.
Thomas 10.15. Returning leaves St.
Thomas at 4.30 p.m., arriving in Aylmer at 6.15. Leave your orders at Conrad's

Some unknown person literally destroyed two good overcoats hanging in the hall at the Mansion house one day last week, by cutting them with a knife, and a few days later Mr. John Sheppard, hostler of the Mansion House barn, had a good overcoat stolen.

A very interesting letter from Mr.
Hiram Bargar, to his sister, Miss Bargar, of Mt. Salem, will be found on another page this issue. Mr. Bargar is with the 1st Canadian contingent in South Africa, and his letter will be read with pleasure by all our readers.

Pierce & Son's stage will run between Aylmer and St. Thomas as usual, leaving Aylmer every morning at 8.30 and returning leave St. Thomas at 4 p.m. Mr. Jas.
Firby, a careful and competent driver, will be in charge. Leave order at Pierce's livery.

A recital by members of the Aylmer Conservatory of Music, under the direction of Prof. Fisher, will be held at the residence of Mr. C. E. Clarke on Tuesday evening next, which promises to be a source of great pleasure to those who are fortunate enough to receive an invitation, which of necessity must be limited in number.

The idea of special calling days for different sections of the town as suggested a few weeks ago, seems to have met with the approval of all the ladies, and is gradually working itself into practical shape. It will necessitate the changing of the days now held by a few of the ladies in each section of the town, but the advantages are so apparent, that all will no doubt fall into line as quickly as possible.

Mr. Bert C. Wales has made a great change and improvement in his cigar store during the past week, and now has one of the neatest and best fitted up places of the kind in Western Ontario. The room has been enlarged to about double its former size, and a lot of handsome cherry cases, and beautiful large mirrors have been placed in position. Bert is making friends every day, and his trade both from town and country is growing rapidly. Give him a call when you want anything in the line of tobacco, pipes, etc.

On Wednesday evening, 7th inst., the residence of Mr. Stephen Cohoon was the meeting place of a large assembly gathered from various parts of the township and elsewhere. The attraction of the evening was the marriage of Miss Ida May, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cohoon, to Mr.
Augustus S. Rogers, of Yarmouth, both of whom are well and favorably known in this section. She as one of Malahide's most amiable and highly esteemed young ladies, and he as equally honored and esteemed in both Yarmouth and Malahide. The occasion was a most enjoyable one to the many guests present, as, of course, it was to those most deeply interested in the affair. At six o'clock in the evening Mr. Rogers presented himself in the presence of those assembled, and a moment or two later the bride, very becomingly attired and looking very lovely as she leaned on the arm of her father, also appeared. The marriage service was conducted by Rev. Geo. Mason, and after being ended, the congratulations of the friends present followed. Then a very happy time was spent around the supper table, as with much pleasantry, ample justice was done to the dainty and sumptuous feast, which was very tastefully served on the occasion. Later in the evening the bride and groom left to take the train going west, followed by hearty good wishes for their happiness and prosperity. A large number of valuable and useful presents testify to the high esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Rogers are held by their many friends.—Com.

field, Ont.

Dr. W. N. Davis, formerly of this place, recently took part in a series of checker games for the championship of the state of Washington, and although he did not win, stood second in the list of eight players in 100 games. The other fellow must have had "a hen on," just a little too often for Will.

The heavy fall of snow mentioned in last week's paper, disappeared as quickly as it came. It commenced to rain on Wednesday night, and within 24 hours the ground was bare again. The water raised rapidly in all the creeks, but no serious damage was done in this immediate vicinity. The approaches to the new bridge at Pt. Bruce were somewhat damaged.

Regarding the Baker family, who give a concert in the Baptist church here on the 27th, the Rev. W. P. Whidden, of Galt, says:—"The most successful entertainment we have ever had."

Ern A. Coughell has received his new spring wall papers, and if beautiful samples have anything to do with the amount of business done, we predict a record breaker for Mr. C. His American papers are simply elegant.

The members of the Bachelor's Benefit Club have forwarded $3 to the Globe, for the National Patriotic Fund, a like amount having been previously sent to the Red Cross Society. The whole business may be summed up in three words, viz: pretty damn good!

Next week we will publish the full programme of the concert to be given in the Baptist church on the evening of the 27th by the Baker family. From what we can learn of this family, we believe their concert will be one of the most pleasing events of the season, and we hope no one will miss it.

"The concert by the Baker family in the First Baptist church last night under the auspices of the Young People's Society, was a brilliant success from every point of view.
The room was filled, the program was excellent and everyone was delighted."—Guelph Daily Mercury. Baptist church, Aylmer, Feb. 27th.

Our Corinth correspondent sends us the following, which we imagine would be difficult to bear.—Mr. W. Foster, who has charge of Mr. Hemmingsway's farm and stock, west of the village, has broken the record in the production of milk during this season. From a herd of 20 cows for 81 months, the yield of milk was 121,893 pounds, or an average of 6,000 lbs. per head.
The cheques received amounted to $1,655.77 an average of $20.78 per head. Mr. Foster is an expert in the care of stock, and has been offered a position on a large ranch in the Northwest, but has decided to stay another season with Mr. Hemmingsway.

Something new. Mr. C. S. Bridgman, agent of the Imperial Life, has to offer 20 payment life policy, dividend period 20 years, amount $1000, age 25 years, yearly premium $33.20. In case of death inside the 20 years, the beneficiary receives a $1000 and in addition all monies paid as premiums.
For example, supposing a man dies after carrying this policy 15 years. His beneficiary would receive $1000 and the 15 years' premium, making a total of $1,498.00. In case he survives the 20 years he can have a paid up insurance, still earning profits, for $1,514.00, or cash value $713.00. Other options of settlement are also given. Enquire of C. S. Bridgman, district agent, Office at Cornforth's, Talbot St., Aylmer.

Mrs. Mary Kinney, relict of the late Geo.
Kinney, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. Laidlaw, on the 5th concession of Malahide, on Sunday last in her 80th year.
Deceased was born on Talbot street, just the other side of the dugway, and had lived in residence of this section the whole of her long and useful life. Her history would be the history of Aylmer and Malahide, and she was probably the oldest person living, born in the township. Her life has been devoted to family and home, where she was a model wife, mother, and housekeeper, and those old friends who are left, will remember her kindness and hospitality at all times, in her years gone by. She leaves two sons and one daughter, viz: Mr. Eber Kinney, of Malahide, Amos, of Moosomin, N.W.T., and Mrs. E.
Laidlaw. She was a sister of Mr. Henry Marin, of this place, and another brother, Mr. Richard Martin lives near Washington, D.C., and a sister, Mrs. Wm. Loop, also resides here. The funeral took place on Tuesday, the remains being laid at rest in the Friends cemetery.

finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving it at Heiter's grocery or at this office. Mrs.
Wm. Simpson, Orwell.

Dr. O. W. Kennedy, dentist, has just placed in his office the very latest appliances for administering gas and vitalized air for the painless extraction of teeth. The accommodation thus provided will doubtless be greatly appreciated.

Having bought the fixtures of one of the finest tobacco stores in Western Ontario we are now prepared to meet all the demands of our customers. Every plug of smoking tobacco cut up free of charge with our new

The commencement exercises in connection with the Collegiate Institute will take place to-morrow evening, and will be of unusual interest. Besides the distribution of diplomas, there will be an excellent programme in which Miss Tessa McCallum, of Toronto, will take part, in addition to the best local talent. Miss McCallum is one of the leading elocutionists of Canada, and will no doubt delight the audience with her selections. We hope to see the hall full to overflowing.

Early on Tuesday morning last, Mr.
Edward Walker, who was very widely known throughout this whole section, passed away after an illness of about a week. He caught a heavy cold, and the trouble all seemed to centre around his heart, and for several days he suffered terrible agony.
Death coming no doubt as a great relief.
Mr. Walker was 55 years old and had lived in Aylmer all his life. At one time he was one of our wealthiest citizens, but he was too liberal, too generous, too open hearted, and his wealth disappeared and with it went many so-called friends, as is too often the case. Then his health failed, and for several years his life was not an enviable one. He carried considerable life insurance, and the drawing from this kept him comfortable and independent, and about a year ago, his health having greatly improved, he went into the boot and shoe business with Mr. Fred Love, and had just worked up a nice successful business, and got in a position to enjoy life again, when he was taken away.

So far as we know, Mr. Walker had not an enemy in the world, and he was certainly one of the best hearted, most generous, and most forgiving men we ever knew. He was a true friend, an honorable opponent, and a regretted by all. The funeral takes place this afternoon at two o'clock from the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. Alex. Love, at whose home he died, and where he received every care and attention during his last illness. He leaves a wife and two children, who reside in Traverse City, Mich., and two brothers and two sisters, viz: W. J. of Detroit, and John of this place. Mrs. Alex. Love and Miss C. Walker, both of Aylmer. The merchants will close their places of business this afternoon from 2 to 4 p.m., out of respect to one they have known for so many years, and held in high esteem. The I. O. O. F. order, of which deceased has been an honored member for more than 27 years, will attend the funeral in a body, and take part in the services at the grave.
