Reported by A. M. Hamilton & Son.

LONDON, Tucsday, Dec. 8.

Wheat was steady to-day at $1 50 per 100 lbs for best quality. There was very little bought by the standard, both millers and shippers bidding by the cental; the former bid also by the standard, making $7c the price, and allowing sellers to choose between the two. The consequence was that most sales were made by the cental. Oats steady at $0c; the demand and supply were both good. Corn was steady at $1 to $1 05; most sales at $1 oa necount of damp samples. Prime beans, unpicked, sold at $1 lo per bushel. Buckwheat sold at $1 control of the seller of the seller of the full, but no sales reported. All other kinds grain steady and unchanged. Provisions guiet and unchanged. Dressed hogs steady;
there is a good shipping demand and values

Mr. Dewar asked to have the names of the applicants read, as he thought Mr. Ferguson was almost too young for the position. Dr. Ferguson moved that Mr. Ferguson be appointed at the salary mentioned. All but Messrs. Dewar, McEheran and Tanton voted yea. These three voted against the extra $100 in salary and not against the appointment of Mr. Ferguson.

Mr. Merchant stated that the average attendance at the Collegiate Institute was 400. Some of the pupils had suggested having an annual entertainment at the close of the term.

400. Some of the pupils had also having an annual entertainment at the close of the term.

Mr. Jeffers moved that the chairman of the Board and the chairmen of the two committees be a committee to aid the principal and to take all necessary steps. Carried.

Inspector Carson reported that there were 4.883 pupils on the roll for November and on average attendance of 3,956. He recommended the appointment of Miss Lena Rudd as kindergarten assistant at Askin atreet school and Miss Gillean at Talbot street. Mr. Liddicoatt had opened the night school on No. 26 with 44 students present. The report was adopted.

Mr. Dewar moved that the Board place on record their deep regret at the resignation of Messrs, Yates and Dr. Ferguson as members of the Board. Carried.

Mr. Cook moved, seconded by Mr. Dewar, that the Board out of respect to the memory of the late Inspector Boyle, and also to stimulate the pupils to greater efforts in a cause that he loved so well, give a prize in a cause that he loved so well, give a prize in a cause that he loved so well, give a prize in a cause that he loved so well, give a prize in a cause that he loved so well, give a prize in a cause that he loved so well, give a prize in a cause that he loved so well, give a prize in a cause that he loved so well, give a prize in a cause that he loved so well, give a prize in a cause that he loved so well, give a prize in a cause that he loved so well, give a prize in a cause that he loved so well, give a prize in a cause that he loved so well, give a prize in a cause that he loved so well, give a prize in a cause that he loved so well, give a prize in a cause that he loved so well, give a prize in a cause that he loved so well, give a prize in a cause that he loved so well well and the loved so well well and the loved so well well and the loved so well and the
