Terms—Ten per cent on the day of sale, and sufficient with such deposit to make one-third within ten days, and the balance secured by first mortgage on the premises, payable in five equal annual installments, with interest annually at 6 per cent per annum; or the purchasers may pay the full principal money in nually at 6 per cent per annum; or the pur-chasers may pay the full principal money in cash.

For further particulars and plan of property apply to James Sloan, Robert Lavery and Eliza Taylor, executors. J. W. Jones, austioneer; Graydon & Graydon, solicitors.

LIGHT SENTENCES.

In view of the prevailing temperature it is respectfully suggested that certain stanzas in Tennyson's "Queen of May" be amended to read as follows:

I sleep so sound all night, mother, that I shall never wake If you do not call me loud when the day begins to break; For you must rig me out, mother, in my toboggan suit so gay,

For I'm to be Queen o' the May, mother, I'm to be Queen o' the May.

As I came up the valley, whom think ye should I see, the hazel tree? He thought of that sharp look, mother, I gave him yesterday— But I'm to be Queen o' the May, mother,

But Robin sitting on the ice beneath

I'm to be Queen o' the May. He thought me a kangaroo, mother, for my collar was turned up high,

And I slid by him without speaking like a cloud in a sunlit sky. They call me cruel-hearted, mother, but I care not what they say,

I'm to be Queen o' the May. The night winds come and go, mother, upon the frozen grass, And the happy stars above them seem to shiver as they pass; There will not be a gleam of sunshine the whole of the livelong day.

For I'm to be Queen o' the May, mother, I'm to be Queen o' the May. All the valley, mother, will be fresh I am!

and white and still, And the snowball and the ice-cake are over all the hili. And the rivulet in the flowerless dale

For I'm to be Queen o' the May, mother, I'm to be Queen o' the May. So get up early, mother, dear, and clean is far too cold to play.

the furnace grates.

And shovel the snow from off the walks and polish up my skates. And tuck me up real snug and warm in my toboggan suit so gay.

For I'm to be Queen o' the May, mother, I'm to be Queen o' the May.

12 Reasons Why You Should Buy CONNOR'S

They are cheaper than any other made. They are artistic and com act. They consume less ice and consequently cost less to keep going.

They are made of sheet metal, and will not warp if exposed to heat, They are light and can be easily moved around.

They are durable,

They can be easily kept clean,
And last, but most important of all reasons, they do not absorb moisture, and consequently omit no odor after being in use a few months. Sold by Cowan Bros., Wm. Stevely & Son, Wm. Spence, Market Square, J. C. Park, East London. Dealers living outside the city may obtain them by corresponding with

A colored girl happened to meet a gentleman going down a street, and nearly came into collision with him; then both made for the other side of the path and another collision was imminent. They both danced back and dodged again, when the girl suddenly stopped and said: "See heah, mister, what am dis gwine to be; a schottische

Samuel Rogers once said of Lady Parke that "she was so good that when she went to heaven she would find no difference, except that her ankles would be thinner and her hair better dressed."
And one of the plainest women I ever saw once showed me a letter from an adoring husband, in which he expressed the hope that when they met in the future world she would look precisely
