PLEASED BIG AUDIENCE

H. R. Macdonald and Frank R. Conklin at the Auditorium.

A concert, pleasing and entertaining in every respect, was given in the Auditorium last night under the auspices of the Knights of the Maccabees the artists who supplied the programme being Mr. H. R. Macdonald. of Toronto, formerly of this city, and Mr. Frank R. Conklin, reader, of New York. Mr. Conklin's initial appearance in this city proved him to be an entertainer second to few and superio to many in his line who have appeared here for several years past. He possesses a personality, quiet and pleasing, and quite won the hearts of his audience by his clever impersonations and rendering of humorous selections. Three numbers, "Buck Fanshaw's Fnperal," "Fare Thee Well, Brother Wat-kins," and one from "David Harum" were well received and readily responded to. Mr. Conklin's impersonation of a country school boy was extremely amusing. His most difficult piece of the evening was the imper-sonation of the characters in Robert son's three-act drama "David Garrick, and in this was his skill especially

Mr. Ruthven Macdonald, though heard often before in London, is as great a favorite as ever, and his solo all called for hearty encores. The best of his nine numbers were "What the ney Sang," a very expressive "Boys Will Be Boys," from Mr Pickwick, and "Be Kind to Oor Gran-

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOL

A tendency to put off the duties o the day, indisposition for exertion o concentration of the mind, depressed spirits, wakefulness at night, indigestion, headsche, feelings of fatigue and lassitude, dizziness, specks before the eyes, noises in the ears and irregularities and derangements of the sexua organs are among the most common symptoms of nervous exhaustion and prostration.

Nervous diseases are slow in coming on and patience is necessary in their treatment. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is absolutely certain to be of benefit to anyone suffering from exhausted nerves, for it supplies the very ele ments of nature which go to create new nerve cells and instill new vigor and energy into the nervous system. Miss F. Butler, 1323 Mill street, London, Ont., states: "I was very much run down in health when I began to use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and can now say that I have received more benefit from this medicine than any which I have ever used for my trouble. I used to be very nervous and suf fered a great deal from nervous headache, but these ailments have entirely disappeared and my health is generally better than it has been for years I fully believe that this is the result of using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food." ### DEAD BODY ABLAZE

Corpse Afire.

New York, Nov. 20.-The screams of frenzied women shrieking "Fire" from the widow of an apartment house at No. 104 East One Hundred and Sixteenth street yesterday, brought a rush of neighbors in time to witness a grewsome sight. In a room in one of the apartments lay Monday, and flames caused by a fallen candle at the head of the bier were rapidly devouring the shroud and draperies. The widow, two daughters and a son of the dead man were in an adjoining room, mourning for the dead and making arrangements for the funeral, when they smelied smoke. They rushed into the room and found the body and its wrap-

IDEAL WEATHER FOR OVERCOATS

AND we have ideal Overcoats for the weather. The fact of the matter is it just keeps us hustling to supply the demand for Men's and Boys' Overcoats these days. We have to take a trip to our factory about every week now to get fresh supplies of these popular Overcoats, and two more cases of them will be opened out ready for our heavy Saturday selling. Long Raglanettes, Loose Box and Paletots or Newmarkets are the three principal styles. We make these coats ourselves, so we know that the vitals or hidden parts are just as honestly made as the seen parts. We stand back of every garment until it has proven it's worth to you. We could not do this if we bought our goods all over the country.
