Middleweight Thinks He Has Now Nailed Johnson for Fight.

New York, March 30.—Jack Johnson's $5,000, which he posted as soon as he arrived in this city yesterday for a match with Jim Jeffries or any other fighter did not go long uncovered. Willus Britt, manager for Stanley Ketchel, middleweight champion, covered Johnson's forfelt today. "Billy" Delaney, acting for Al Kaufman, is also trying to clinch a match with the Negro champion.

Johnson flunked out of one match with Ketchel, but Britt believes that he has now nailed the Negro. Jim Coffroth, the California fight promoter, will bid for the match. Britt would like a finish fight with Johnson, and it is likely that Coffroth's offer will be the one accepted—if the fight is arranged.

SCORES IN THE DOUBLES

In the Novice Five-Men Team Royal Giants of Toronto Roll 2,337.

March 30.-There was som good rolling at the C. B. A. tourney here today, although none of the leaders were displaced in the several events.

The nearest approach to it was when Mauser, of Syracuse, scored 630 in the singles. This is easy second place, beat-ing Drummond, of London, with 605, out of that position. Reg Graham still leads with 641. Mauser was in good form. His last string was a beauty, 234, and was ob-tained by excellent rolling. In the novice five-men teams, the Royal Giants, of Toronto, rolled 2,337, and this should be good for some of the money.

Like Kid Lavigne in the old days, he took all the punching that O'Brien could land on his face and body without once retreating on the defensive, and kept on boring in with awkward but terrific swings, uppercuts and hooks. He did very little straight and hooks. He did very little straight left hand jabbing, but relied wholly upon the strength he put behind great smashes that were aimed either for the head or
