Pittsburg, July 11.-Pittsburg was today shut out by Philadelphia by the most one-sided score of 18 to 0. McQuillen was so effective that not a Pittsburg player reached third base.

The local team had five pitchers on the rubber, and the Philadelphias hit each with the greatest freedom. Bransfield was the star. He made five hits, including two trip.es. batted in eight runs and scored three himself.

In the ninth inning the Philadelphias scored nine runs. Thirteen men went to bat, nine of them hit safely, Bransfield and Doolan getting two apiece, and one got his base on balls. Webb and White were the pitchers. White succeeding Lobert Leaves Cincinnati and Curtis. and Sweeney Join Griff's Crew.

[By Associated Press.] Cincinnati, July 12 .- Perhaps the biggest trade of the year in baseball is to be announced here on Wednesday, when the Boston National team comes to play Cincinnati a series of four games. It will take from Cincinnati Third Baseman Lobert, who is considered by many one of the best infielders of the league, and will bring to Cincinnati Pitcher Cliff Curtis and Shortstop Sweeney, of Boston. This plan has received official recommendation of President Herman mendation of President Hermann, who is
