ANOTHER INVASION OF CANADA.

British shipping circles are much interested in the entry of the Cunard Company into the Canadian trade. Its acquirement of the Thomson line pro-vides it with a base on the Thames the English Thumes—and will enable it to compete on more equal terms with other companies. The well-informed London correspondent of the Manchester Guardian says:

Manchester Guardian says:

"Shipping interests will now for some years centre largely on the Canadian lines, but, as a result of the agreement which is to be signed next week for a renewal of the North Atlantic Conference, there will be no rate-cutting. For the Canadian Pacific Company also contracts for three lines are about to be placed, but these are understood to be conditional upon the extension of the mails between Liverpool and Hong Kong, about which a proposal is at present before the Dominion Parliament. New tonnage will not be added this year to the Royal Line beyond the commissioning of the steamer Volturno, which for some
