His theme was they could not oppose but they could not oppose but they 'The Universal Church."

Mr. Harvey placed the word namely, in the catholic sense, and in the limited sense. The catholic or uni-Pentecost, and all local denominations and creeds were branches of this church

The minister spoke of the church as St. Paul saw it in his apostolic days. The apostle compared the church to a building with Jesus Christ as the cornerstone, while the whole foundation was the Bible itself. The superstructure of the church was the membership, and each stone represents a member, who has his part to play in per forming the missions of the church and bearing its responsibilities.

The speaker petitioned his auditors become active members of the church, as the growth of the spiritual ife was dependent on it, and because God has given us the opportunity of entering the partnership with Him towards its upbuilding.

The next meeting will be held in the and will be addressed by Rev. J.

REV. MR. INKSTER'S CALL SUSTAINED

Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church Will Go to Victoria, B. C.

A CALL TO DR. M'CRAE

Presbytery Considered It at a Meeting Held on Tuesday Afternoon -No Action Taken.

The presbytery of London met in the First Presbyterian Church Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Dr. Munro acted as moderator, and Rev. Wm. M. Martin was clerk. The meeting being an adjourned one, the attendance was not as arge as usual.

The call to Rev. J. G. Inkster, B. A for First Church, Victoria, B. C., was the first business taken up. The call was very unanimous, the stipend being $3.500, with manse and six weeks' vacation, and each fourth year the vacation shall be three months. Rev. A. J. MacGillivray, formerly of New St. James' Church, of this city, appeared to support the call. Mr. Mac-Rev. W. H. Harvey, of Askin Strongly and closurolly strongly and cloquently. Mr. J. M.
