Canadian Press Desratch. Hamilton, March 8 .- Outplaying the Hamiltons from the goal out the Boston Bruins furnished the unexpected here Saturday, defeating the league leaders to 0. The Bruins played like champions, and were entitled to a large marin, but bad shooting by Shay, and smart met-tending by Forbes held them to two counters. Every member of the Bruin team turned in a smart performance. Stewart's work in goal for Boston was sensational and the best witnessed around this neck of the woods

Hamilton underestimated the Bruins. They went about their work in a careless manner to start, and it was no until late in the fracas that they hit heir regular stride. Then they realized hey had Stewart to deal with, and his their regular stride. Then they realized they had Stewart to deal with, and his work proved too big a handicap for them to overcome. The Bruins' front line, composed of Shay, Jackson and Herberts, never looked better on Hamilton lice. They showed an attack that compared favorably with any seen here this season, and they checked back well enough to break up Hamilton plays before they got properly under way. The defence offered by the Bruins was another surprise. Mitchell and Hitchman resembled the proverbial stone wall and turned back many a Tiger attack. Both men made good use of their bodies and by constantly stepping in, took much speed out of the local front line.

Billy Burch, voted the most valuable player in the league, was Hamilton's best. His checking was a feature and only smart work by Stewart held him scoreless.

There was no scoring in the opening session, but both net tendors was called.

The second period was only a minute old when Shay was chased for bumping "Shorty" Green, but while playing a man short Stan Jackson tallied the Bruins' first counter, and before Shay returned Herble Mitchell gave the Bruins their second, a long shot from the heards.

Montreal, March 3.—Canadiens and Montreal staged their final interborough clash of the N. H. L. season here Saturday, Canadiens winning 3 to 1, and thus holding their narrow one-point margin over the strong-finishing Ottawa club for third place and the right to enter the league eliminations. The result leaves the outcome up to Monday's final league battles with Canadiens receiving Hamilton Tigers here and Ottawa playing at Boston.

Any doubts as to the fight that the Montreal team would put up against the local rivals in the important tussle Saturday were settled early in the game when it was made apparent that the Maroon-clad players were going to battle every inch of the way in an effort to score at least one victory this season on Canadien ice.
