the Boers. While they are co-operating in a movement which has tactical unity in its progress, their commands as far as American Consul's Report on Both Boer mmediate objectives are concerned are independent of each other. The result of this rivalry among them is inevitable, the three campaigns with the keenest interest. The three comanders are Major-General Charles F. C'ery, in Natal, who will lead the advance to relieve Ladysmith; Major-General Paul S. Methuen, commanding the flying column which has already started to relieve Kimberly, and Major-General William W. Gatacre, commanding the British forces at Queenstown, the central position in Cape Colony, who will push forward to the Orange Free State border, with the object of diverting the Boers captured in battle are confined. with Kitchener in Egypt.

1. a two relief expeditions will hold public interest from the start. They are of widely different characters. Clery, in Natal, is preparing to lead an army of horse, foot and dragoons, with heavy guns up through tortuous passes, where his advance will be stubbornly contested. His ab.lity will be tested to the utmost his success will accrue to him grad ually, culminating in the wresting of Ladysmith from the Boers. Methuen's advance to relieve Kimberly, will be over the open yeldt. He has no heavy artillery, and his operations will consist of dashes of a brilliant nature and an endeavor to sweep the Boers before him in field fighting, a kind of warfare they are said to dislike. His troops are in the lightest order and will advance as often as possible under cover of dark-ress. With Methuen victory or defeat received the following from General For-

Boers Persuading the Natives to Take in Crops Which Otherwise Would Rot.

London, Nov. 23.—An official despatch from Sir Alfred Milner to Mr. Chamberlain reports that thus far the efforts of the Boers to provoke an uprising among the Basutos or to start civil war in Cape Colony have been unsuccessful.

The Boers informed Chief Jonathan that if he would join them he would be defended. If he remained neutral they told him he would not be molested, but they declared that he must expell the British magistrate and allow his fellow tribesmen to pass freely into the Orange Free State, whose government and Great Britain renounce all interest in Upola and Savila, which go to Germany. The present indication is that the treaty will be signed in Washington, in which case Secretary Hays and Ambasadors Pauncefote and Von Holleben will be the signatory parties, although this is still possible that the execution of the document may occur in London.
