The electors of Prince County, P. E. I., have filed a petition for suspension of the Canada Temperance Act.

The statistics of longevity in Prussia are striking. In December, 1880, there were living 359 persons who were as least 100 years old, 128 of them being men and 231 women. Of the men 32 were still married; of the women 5 were. Twelve of the men had never married, and 9 of the women never had. Of persons born between 1781 and 1790, 5,355 were still living, the men being 2,025 in number and the women 3,330. The records further show that the number of per-A petition was filed Monday against Mr. Wallace, M. P., for Albert, and a counter one to disqualify Mr Rogers.
