

CK-TAKING
OMPANY, SHE ESTABLISH-
vis Streets.
33 th $3.
22.50
th $2.50.

QUOR
S THE

ING
ARTICLE.

FURNISHINGS
& CO.,
403 Queen St. West
Suits, collars, cuffs and braces.

MOVALS
OF REMOVAL.
O'NEIL
Chamber street,
Plumber, Steam
Gas Fitter,
403 Queen St. West.

AN & KERR,
TERS, ETC., to the enant Buildings,
N STREET.

STEAMSAIPS
n S. S. Agency. nd to all Parts
D. IRELAND, and Continent of

THE ONLY
One Cent Morning Paper
IN CANADA
18 KING ST. EAST, TORONTO

FOURTH YEAR.
ON A CHARGE OF MURDER.

TERMS OF THE WARRANT ISSUED FOR SHERIDAN'S ARREST.

A Despatch from the Land League in Ireland Urging that a Full Investigation Should Take Place.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The paper issued by the state department for the arrest of Patrick J. Sheridan is purely formal. The request for the arrest was made in the written by M. D. E. Saurin, the first secretary of the British League, who is temporary charge of affairs in the absence of Minister West in Canada. It is the rule of the state department not to make public letters asking for a requisition for a person accused of crime, but the substance of Mr. Saurin's letter is a request for the arrest of Sheridan for complicity in the Phoenix park murders.
On this a request for the arrest of Sheridan
for complicity in the Phoenix park murders.
On this a request for the arrest of Sheridan
for complicity in the Phoenix park murders.

Whereas, Pursuant to the provisions of the tenth article of the Treaty of Commerce between the United States of America and Great Britain of Aug. 9, 1842, for mutual defence and protection of the commerce of the two countries, it is provided that the citizens of each country shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges in the other country as the citizens of that country enjoy in their own country, and that the laws of each country shall be construed liberally in favor of the citizens of the other country.

PERSONAL.
The first act of Oscar Wilde on his return to England was to place half the money he made in America in the hands of his mother.

CANADIAN GEOGRAPHICAL NEWS.
Hon. J. L. Beaudry was yesterday elected mayor of Montreal by about 400 majority.

A BLAZE OF PICTURE FRAMES.
The Cobban factory in Hayter Street destroyed by fire.

PARLIAMENTARY POINTS.
OTTAWA, March 1.—Mr. Milouk presented the petition of the school of practical science at Toronto for the removal of the school on books used in the universities, colleges and schools.

THE WEATHER BULLETIN.
METEOROLOGICAL BUREAU,
TORONTO, March 1, 1883.

The Toronto Globe

FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 2, 1883.

SUBSCRIPTION
THREE DOLLARS A YEAR
TWENTY-FIVE CENTS A MONTH
18 KING ST. EAST, TORONTO

PRICE ONE CENT.

MR. WITHROW BANQUETED.

And Made the Recipient of a Purse From The Citizens and a Testimonial From His Employees—A Large Gathering—The Speeches.

Mr. John J. Withrow was honored by his fellow citizens with a banquet and presentation of a purse and a testimonial from the citizens and a large gathering of his employees. The banquet was held at the Walker house last night. The gathering was a large one and representative of the commercial and manufacturing interests of the city. In the chair sat Ald.
McMurrich, and in the vice chairs Ald.
John T. Moore and P. G. Close. Among those present were: The guest, John J.
Withrow, Mark Hall, Patrick Hughes, W.
R. Hamilton, John Leys, Wm. Christie, Robt. Jeffrey, Dr. Smith, ex-Ald.
Kent, Philip Jamieson, Ald. Hallam, Mr.
Hillock, James Rennie, Rev. Mr. Bishop, Rev. Mr. Withrow, Walter S. Lee, Irving Walker, John E. Mitchell, ex-Ald. Ritchie, G. M. Frankland. It was noticed that a large number of those present were native Torontoans, though some of them were born abroad, and all seemed very proud of the fact; the guest, Mr. Withrow, ex-Mayor McMurrich, John Leys, Irving Walker, Walter S. Lee, etc. The dinner was got up in a style creditable to the Walker house and its managers. Tomlin's band supplied the music.

Mr. Patrick Hughes replied for the legislature. He facetiously referred to the narrow escape he had of becoming M. P.
—he had been elected, but had never taken his seat. He could say that our legislature was earnest in the discharge of their duties. He said that he had never taken his seat as M. P. He said that he had never taken his seat as M. P. He said that he had never taken his seat as M. P. He said that he had never taken his seat as M. P. He said that he had never taken his seat as M. P. He said that he had never taken his seat as M. P. He said that he had never taken his seat as M. P.

Mr. Withrow was enthusiastically received.
He said he had never felt himself so thrilled as at present. He felt that in manner in which the toast had been received, and in the attendance that he had been honored. He said that he had never felt so honored as at present. He said that he had never felt so honored as at present. He said that he had never felt so honored as at present. He said that he had never felt so honored as at present.

Mr. Withrow was enthusiastically received.
He said he had never felt himself so thrilled as at present. He felt that in
manner in which the toast had been received, and in the attendance that he had been honored. He said that he had never
felt so honored as at present. He said
that he had never felt so honored as at present. He said that he had never felt
so honored as at present. He said that he had never felt so honored as at present.

Mr. Withrow was enthusiastically received.
He said he had never felt himself so thrilled as at present. He felt that in
manner in which the toast had been received, and in the attendance that he had been honored. He said that he had never
felt so honored as at present. He said
that he had never felt so honored as at present. He said that he had never felt
so honored as at present. He said that he had never felt so honored as at present.

EMIGRATION OF GERMANS

Direct Communication With THE FATHERLAND.

Violation of the Independence of Parliament—Furnishing of an Independent Party—The Duty on Lumber.

OTTAWA, March 1.—For the second time this session the house sat until 6 o'clock to-day.

On recommendation of the standing orders committee the time for receiving private bills was extended till March 7.
Mr. Blake protested against the rules of the house being thus violated.

In answer to Mr. Amoy, Hon. J. H.
Pope said his department could not begin to supply copies of the late census returns to parish priests and ministers throughout the province. The matter must be dealt with by the house. The game of the member for Bellechasse was to get copies for the British Canadian press free of charge, but it did not work.

Before the orders of the day were proceeded with, Mr. Cameron (Huron) brought up the disputed returns from Kings, P. E. I.
There were four candidates for the representation of the constituency, two to be elected. Messrs. P. A. McIntyre and J. E.
Robertson, both liberals, received the highest number of votes. The returning officer reported that Mr. McIntyre elected all right, but declared Mr. Robertson disqualified on the ground that at the time of the election he was a member of the Island legislature and gave the seat to Mr. A. C. Mc-Donald, the third candidate. Mr. Cameron contended that the returning officer had exceeded his duties in pronouncing Mr. Robertson disqualified. He said it was his duty to declare elected the candidate who received the highest number of votes. The plain duty of parliament was to rectify the wrong that had been done to Mr. Robertson, leaving to the minority candidates the right of protesting against the election of the seat. Mr. Cameron moved accordingly. Several precedents in support of his case. Sir John Macdonald who thought the hon. gentleman should have given notice of his motion, and was not prepared to meet his argument, asked for an adjournment of the debate, and was agreed to. The premier will doubtless move that the case be referred to the committee on private bills.

RIGHT OF EXTRADITION.

FINNISH ATTACK ON THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT.

The Pall Mall Gazette's Editorial of England's Demands—The Natural Reactions to be Drawn Therefrom.

PARIS, March 1.—The Universal violently attacked the government for its assumed intention to deliver France to England. It says England refused to deliver Bernard, and offered a compromise of Orson, and she offered an agreeable refuge to all our political convicts and amiable communists, and now on the simple denunciation of a wretch the soldiers who were his tools, the republic deliver up an Irishman who, until the contrary proof is brought, ought to be held innocent.

LONDON, March 1.—The Pall Mall Gazette says: "When Russia will, Europe to refrain from the nihilists the Austrian traditions which we have extended to Europe the regime which produced nihilism.
It would be unpleasant if the United States addressed a similar message to Lord Grenville. If the demand for the extradition of Sheridan is based solely upon the fact of his being a political convict, it is not stands exactly on the same footing as if Russia asked for the surrender of prince Bismarck, or the extradition of a man who surrendered of Sheridan would be in securing the abandonment of the position regarding the rights of the British government in the face of Europe. It would be even worse if the position were abandoned only to obtain a humiliating result."

THE LOTTERY IN LONDON.
Proceedings Against Ticket Sellers and Prize Winners.

LONDON, March 1.—A stir was caused in the city to-day by a number of summonses being issued against parties having held tickets in the late masonic lottery. At first the matter was considered as an excellent joke by getting the papers, but on further investigation the matter looks more serious. It will be remembered that some time before the drawing took place rumors were floating round the city to the effect that the promoters of the scheme should desist on pain of proceedings being taken against every one taking tickets in the lottery. It was reported that the promoters were not to be trusted, and that the lottery was a mere ruse to get money out of the pockets of the public. The matter was not taken seriously until the drawing took place, and the prizes were won. It was then discovered that the promoters were not to be trusted, and that the lottery was a mere ruse to get money out of the pockets of the public.

JIM ELLIOTT MURDERED.

THE NOTORIOUS FUGITIVE KILLED IN A BAR-ROOM.

Shot by Jerry Dunn—Contradictory Reports as to How the Affair Happened—The Dead Man the Aggressive Party.

CHICAGO, March 1.—To-night James Elliott, the pugilist who fought Johnny Dwyer at Long Point, Ont., and Jerry Dunn, a well-known sporting man, met at Wm.
Landon's saloon and began shooting.
Elliott being killed. Dunn was wounded in two places. The account of the shooting varies. One account says Elliott attacked Dunn with a chair, Dunn meantime using a revolver. Dunn and his friends say he was not aware of Elliott's presence in the saloon. Elliott fired a shot, passing under the scalp of another and through the left forearm of Dunn, who then drew a revolver and joined in the fusillade. A crowd of twenty-five persons gathered in the place and made a hasty exit. Dunn has been wounded in two places. The account of the shooting varies. One account says Elliott attacked Dunn with a chair, Dunn meantime using a revolver. Dunn and his friends say he was not aware of Elliott's presence in the saloon. Elliott fired a shot, passing under the scalp of another and through the left forearm of Dunn, who then drew a revolver and joined in the fusillade. A crowd of twenty-five persons gathered in the place and made a hasty exit. Dunn has been wounded in two places. The account of the shooting varies.

A VERY NICE FATHER.
He Secured his Son in a Prize Fight and Saw Him Well Founded.

PHILADELPHIA, March 1.—Early this morning Charles McDonald and William Mitchell fought a desperate battle on the stage, Fort Richmond. Both are very young.
Twenty rounds were fought, in which McDonald came out second best. McDonald's father said as his second, and although his son could scarcely keep his feet after the tenth round, the old man kept him in the ring until he could fight no longer. The principals with the elder McDonald have been arrested.

THE BLACK HAND.
All the Documents and a List of the Membership in the Hands of the Government.

MADRID, March 1.—The names of the entire committee of the Black Hand society, its documents, and a list of the members, numbering seven thousand, are in the hands of the government. A special tribunal will be convened to try the prisoners. All considered of murder will probably be hanged.
Probably 800 will be sentenced to life imprisonment.