Another Crisis Predicted in Eastern Europe.
New York, April 5.—The Times London special correspondent says he understands dispatches have been received at the Foreign Office which are regarded as being completely trustworthy. The condition of Eastern Europe is evidently something big is happening under the surface of diplomacy, which is expected to break out very soon. Apparently, too, it is expected that this without reference to happenings in France. There is some ground for the assumption that the recent visit of the Russian ambassador to London is connected with this. The Russian ambassador is expected to leave for his post in London in the next few days. The Russian ambassador is expected to leave for his post in London in the next few days.
