One father will say "Yes;" another, "Wait till you're ten;" another, perhaps, fourteen.
For our part we would say, "Let him have it when he's ten; or, if he had developed ahead of his age, perhaps a little earlier.
There are courtless men today who began to shoot about as soon as they had strength enough to raise a gun; to their shoulders. Almost without exception such are men of quick decision, action and assurance. The gun has a great deal to do with fostering these three qualities, and we gun has a great deal to do with fostering these three quahties, and we say begin it early.

This is no theory; the readers of this paper have had it very ably presented in the announcements of the J. Stevens Arms and Tool Company, Chicopee Falls, Mass. The company is conducting a very laudable, and, we are pleased to say, most successful campaign in introducing a light, practical rifle to our young lads all over the country. Young eyes are being trained, young arms strengthened and young nerves steadied, which should be the better able to frame the destiny of our country a few years hence.
