OBITUARY.
Andrew Shaw.
 Mr. Andrew Shaw passed away at an early hour on Tuesday morning, Dec. 9th, at his home in West Paradise, after an illness of over a year. Mr. Shaw was born at South Lawrencetown in 1856. His parents, while very young, came from Ireland and made their home in this Province. His wife, a Miss Jordan of Granville Square, predeceased him some fourteen years ago. He is survived by one daughter, Miss Alma, who has remained at home with her father, and also by three sisters, Mrs. Margaret E. Keith of Williamston, Mrs. Sarah J. Brown of Margaretville and by Mrs. I. W. Whitman of Middlesex. Funeral services were held from his late residence on Thursday afternoon, Dec. 11th. The pastor, Rev. W. Steadman Smith spoke from the text Psa 50:15: "Call upon me in the day of Trouble." Music was provided by the West Paradise choir. Interment took place in the Paradise cemetery. Mr. Shaw was tax collector for Ward 11 for over 36 years. He was well known in Annapolis County and vicinity and had made for himself a large circle of friends.

CENTRAL CLARENCE.
 V. B. Messenger has had the telephone installed.
 Mr. G. I. Salter attended the funeral of his brother, who died very suddenly at Parrsboro.
 Mrs. Henry Starratt had the misfortune to fall, injuring her knee and necessitating the taking of a few stitches. Glad to say she is improving.
 Miss Hogan and pupils will give a Xmas entertainment at the vestry of the church on Wednesday evening, Dec. 17th at eight o'clock.
 Miss Lily Stevenson has been spending a few days with Mrs. Henry Messenger, Mrs. S. N. Miller, Mrs. Owen Wheelock and Mrs. Eva Bruce of Mileston were visitors at the same home on Friday afternoon last.
 The people of the community were shocked and grieved to learn of the very sudden death of their friend and neighbor, Deacon Henry Messenger, on Sunday morning last. We feel that a good man of God has been taken from us, one who will be much missed in the church and community but most of all in his home, which he loved, and where he proved himself to be a most devoted husband. Much sympathy is extended to the sorrowing widow and relatives. Funeral services were held from his late home on Tuesday afternoon, conducted by his pastor, Rev. W. S. Smith. There was a very large gathering of friends and relatives. The choir sang "Abide With Me," "In the Christian's Home in Glory," "Soldier of Christ, Well Done," and the "Christian's Goodnight." Solo by E. Stewart Elliott "One Sweetly Solemn Thought." The floral tributes were beautiful. Interment took place at Fairview cemetery Lawrencetown. The Organists conducted the service at the grave.
 Miss Pearl Sprout came from Boston on Friday to be with her mother, who still remains in ill health, although somewhat improved.
 A bean supper and fancy sale was held at the vestry on Friday evening. About fifty dollars was realized. Proceeds for the Acadia Fund.
 The young people of the B. Y. P. U. are preparing a pantomime to be given in the church on Sunday evening, Dec. 21st.
 Mrs. L. E. Smith returned from Parrsboro, Monday, Dec. 8th, after spending several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. B. R. Hall.

DEEP BROOK.
 Mrs. James Dittmars entertained the Dorcas Society at her attractive home on Wednesday, Dec. 10th, afternoon and evening. A large number of the members were present and much work was done preparatory to the Christmas sale. Eighteen were present at the supper to enjoy the good things prepared by the hostess. Mr. and Mrs. McNaught of Bear River, were special guests. It was learned that the occasion was in honor of the thirtieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Dittmars. Miss Emma A. McChelland is a few well chosen words in behalf of the society extended congratulations and good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Dittmars and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vroom, who were celebrating their fifth anniversary. This proved to be one of them our enjoyable meetings of the season.
 The many friends of Miss Gertrude Curtis will be sorry to learn of her very serious illness. She has been dangerously ill at her home here for two weeks. We are happy to say at present writing that the Dr. is holding out hopes of her recovery. She is under the skilful care of Dr. Lovett and Dr. Campbell and two nurses.

OBITUARY.
Mrs. Sydney R. Paterson.
 Many will be sorry to learn of the death of Augusta M. Paterson, widow of Sydney B. Paterson, which occurred Wednesday at 13 Horsfield street, at the age of 89 years. Mrs. Paterson was a daughter of the late Captain John and Barbara Beck. Her husband was Deputy Receiver General of the Dominion Savings Bank here and passed away 29 years ago. She is survived by four children, George W. of Ottawa, B. Eaton of Halifax, Mrs. T. L. Morrissey and Mrs. D. R. Hemley of Montreal, also seven grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. C. A. Clark of the Marine and Fisheries is a half-brother.
 Funeral was on Friday afternoon at 2.30 from her late residence.—(St. John Telegraph-Journal.)
 Mrs. Paterson, who was an aunt of Mrs. Lansdale Piggott of this town, was well known in Bridgetown and Granville, where she had many friends, who learn with regret of her decease.—(Ed. Monitor.)

NEW LAMP BURNS 94% AIR
 Beats Electric or Gas.

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 19 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94% air and 6% common kerosene (coal oil).
 The inventor, J. M. Johnson, 246 Craig St. W., Montreal, is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250. to $500. per month. 38-121.
