COURT FOREST FLOWER ENJOYS A SLEIGH DRIVE.

Dear Editor:
Kindly allow me through the columns of your paper to give a brief description of a sleighing party on Wednesday March 8th from Springfield to Hunter's Lodge. The party consisted of the Foresters, who were accompanied by the ladies. At four o'clock we left Springfield arriving at Hunter's Lodge at five-thirty, where a bountiful repast was prepared by our host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Acker. The evening was spent in music, games and other amusements. At a late hour we started for home, arriving at our destinations in the "two small hours." The night and the sleighing were both perfect. We met with no serious accident, one team alone upsetting, but fortunately no one was injured and only caused a laugh by all.

The members of the party were: Mrs. Bernard Swallow, Miss Etta Swallow, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rafuse, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Allen, Mr. George Durling, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Durling, Mr. J. C. Grimm, Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. Lambert McNay, Mr. Maynard Grimm, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Grimm, Miss Daisy Morrison.

Put it to the test in any case of cold, croup, or stomach trouble or any run-down or weak condition. At all druggists, 50c and $1.00, or Dr. T. A. Slocum, Limited, Toronto.

Obituary.

MRS. E. B. MOORE.
The deepest regret was felt all over the Province when the knowledge of the fatal malady which terminated in the death of Mrs. Moore on the 12th inst., was made known. Mrs. Moore, as the wife of Rev. E. B. Moore, one of the most prominent members of the Methodist Conference, and having held pastorate in every part of the province, had a very wide circle of acquaintance, and wherever she was known she was universally beloved. Her beautiful Christian life will remain a cherished memory in many hearts and homes. Besides her husband she leaves a daughter, wife of E. A. Smith of Halifax and a son, Dr. Moore, of Wolfville, to all of whom are extended deep sympathy in the loss they have sustained.

HOW TO KNOW WHEN FOOD STUFFS ARE "GOOD."

How to know when food stuffs are "good," is a puzzle that faces the inexperienced housekeeper at every turn. From market to butcher, from butcher to grocer, the same perplexity awaits her, but she can escape many mistakes by keeping a pad to jot down things she has proved, and has reason to know will be good.
Good flour should be creamy, not dead white, nor yet have that bluish cast that some flours have. It should not feel damp, sticky or clammy. It should not form into lumps when pressed in the hand; it should have some elasticity, some "life," as the millers express it. When made into dough it will be elastic, easy to knead, staying in round, puffy shape with a springiness that is quite noticeable.
Ontario fall wheat flour, with its rich, mellow flavor, provides that beautiful brown crust in well made bread. Manitoba flour provides the gluten. The two combined and blended in just the right proportions, give the good qualities of both, with their faults eliminated.
This Blended Flour stands every test. It has already gained a deservedly popular place in the esteem of good housekeepers, and in fact they declare the Blended Flour is far ahead of any other that can be bought to-day.
The best way to assure yourself of the quality of flour is to buy a little, and try it. You will save yourself some trouble, however, if you begin by using Blended Flour, then you won't want to use any other. Blended Flour is certainly best for bread, and best for pastry.
