Captain George Crandell. Owns four steamboats and sixteen scows.

From twelve to sixteen years ago,
He run the Woodman to and fro ;
And now the Lake and River plows,
With four steam boats and sixteen scows,
The fifth steam boat is building new ;
Will his five captains, cooks and crew,
Book keepers too, to estimate,
Expense and income of the freight ;
Like a monarch on the land
Every Captain does command,
On the Lake, or the shore,
George Crandell is the Commodore ;
An Engine house is building new,
For engine boiler and the flue ;
His Ranger steamboat, one in four,
Sampson, Champion, Commodore ;
New boat is building for good luck,
To run Lake Scugog like a duck ;
With Mail and Commerce up and down,
From Whitby trains to Lindsay town ;
Nearest route by far the best,
For all who travel to the west ;
Choose your Captain, ship and crew,
Eat, drink and sleep and travel too ;
To Port Perry harbour fair,
Or Sturgeon Point, where pic-nics are,
To Bobcaygeon and the Falls,
And mighty loads of lumber hauls ;
To bless this whole Dominion wide,
And Uncle Sam the other side.
