

of his eloquence, and astonished them by the depth of his reasoning. The chief of Mr. Coleridge's works are, "Sibylline Leaves," a collection of poems; "Biographia Literaria," or, biographical sketches of his life and opinions; "Aids to Reflection;" and, "The Friend;" a series of essays, in three volumes; besides a variety of minor poems, many of which are replete with beautiful imagery and fine feeling, and numerous treatises and essays connected with public events in the moral and political world, some of which were published in a separate form, but the major part appeared in public journals. He died at Highgate, in 1834. His "Specimens of Table Talk" were published after his death, by his nephew, Henry Nelson Coleridge.—Alliquis.

O. B. EVANS the oldest practical Daguerrean in the United States, has associated with him self Mr. F. HARRISON, one of his most successful pupils and located as above, where they intend to practice the Daguerrean art for a few weeks only.

Mr. E. would also most respectfully call the attention of the Public to his celebrated London Premium Daguerrean Gallery, No. 214 Main Street, Buffalo.

One of the most costly and elegant establishments in this country. The first Premium, a Silver Medal and a Diploma were awarded the subscriber at the State Fair at Buffalo in 1848; also in Syracuse in 1849, & again at Rochester in 1851, and a diploma for the Daguerreotype of a Domestic Animal.

Mr. E. is also one of the three who Received a Prize at the World's Fair,

Thus showing more first class premiums than any other Daguerrean in America. In all the above exhibitions we have competed with the first operators in the country.

We have a few premium Pictures here, one a game of Chess, on which H. A. Massart lavished the most extravagant eulogy.

But lest we should be accused of egotism, we shall only say that we most cheerfully submit our productions in the Art to the criticism of connoisseurs.

N.B.—Our Pictures are taken in all weather (under the latest approved sky-light) with equal success, except children, for which the best light should be selected, and with our Telegraph Instruments, they can be taken almost instantaneously.

A dark dress is most becoming to all, a dark scarf is the most suitable neck dress for Gentlemen, showing as little linen as possible.

Instructions will be given at this Gallery which will enable any one to succeed in this lucrative branch of business.

Stock and apparatus of all kinds will be found constantly on hand at this place and Buffalo.

A few copies of Power's Greek Slave for sale at this office.
