

Mr. Thomas Carter, a gentleman residing at Sumas, the section adjoining this, has recently presented to the Home a good cabinet organ, with which we are very much pleased, and accordingly grateful to the kind donor, for this substantial evidence of his interest in our work.

The sum of $1,000 insurance has been placed on the furniture, thus making the total amount of insurance on building and furniture $4,000. I shall enclose the receipts for amount of premiums on last $2,000 insurance.

Miss Hart spent four days with us a short time ago, and you can easily understand how much we enjoyed her visit, which seemed all too short. I feel that her coming has been the means of bringing the workers in our two Indian Homes into closer sympathy. For my own part, I am very strongly drawn toward Miss Hart by reason of personal attraction, and one cannot but admire her for the ability with which she is managing affairs at Port Simpson.

The General Board seems to be in earnest about the establishment of a Boys' School, a fact over which we will all rejoice together.

Miss Somers and Miss Elderkin join me in sending kindest wishes, trusting that to you and to all of us may be given the Master Spirit.

JAPAN.

From Miss Lund.

You speak of the Orphanage. Almost every mission is beginning to work up one or more of late. The Presbyterians have one at Okayama that is a great success. The Episco-