

Two Letters

(Extract from a letter written by a subscriber of The Ladies' Home Journal, in Yokohama.)

"I do not think that Pears' Soap is in need of any further advertising. I have traveled in every part of the globe, and it seems to me I have seen its advertisements and heard of it in the smallest places. In my own family here I have used it for eleven years, and never want any soap to take its place."

*Extract from a letter written by a reader of

"You may be interested to know that although I have seen the advertisements of Pears' Soap for a long time, I had never used it until I saw the January CENTURY advertisement, which influenced me to try it.

"Since that time I have come to believe that Pears' is altogether the most satisfactory soap in existence."

There are soaps offered as substitutes for Pears' which are dangerous—be sure you get PEARS'.
